Fire Sweeps Hotels Near Boardwalk

Frame Building Housing Elderly Guests Levelled

(Picture on page 2)

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—At least nine persons died and 16 were missing and feared dead in an estimated million-dollar blaze Monday that spread from a frame hotel for elderly guests to a row of closed hotels near the famed Atlantic City Boardwalk.

A woman victim died at Atlantic City Hospital. The others, none identified, were among 24 persons police listed as unaccounted for.

All had been guests at one hotel, the Surfside, where the fire started. Police and firemen picked their way through the Surfside's debris with a huge crane Monday night in search of other victims.

"Some of the people may have scammed out and have not reported," said Michael Bloomberg, acting fire prevention chief. Bloomberg, who estimated the damage, also said the cause of the fire was not known.

FBI Aid Requested
The FBI in Washington said it was sending a three-man identification team here at the request of police, to help identify victims through fingerprints.

The fire spread from the Surfside to buildings on both sides, collapsing walls and roofs and showering flaming rubble to the street. Sparks touched off other buildings. More than 200 firemen fought the blazes.

Five hotel buildings and one rooming house were destroyed, four other buildings damaged. A family of seven, including the owners of the Surfside, jumped from a window about 15 feet from the ground. A woman, her hair afire, raced down a hallway and crawled through a window onto a porch roof to be rescued by firemen.

Two firemen used tin garbage pail covers to ward off sparks and climbed a ladder to rescue a screaming woman from her room.

"Terrible," Policeman Says
The words of the rescued and the rescuers were much the same.

"It was terrible," said a policeman. "We could hear the people crying for help but we couldn't do anything about it."

"It's horrible," said a woman pulled from the flaming Surfside. "I can see all those faces before me."

"The building was collapsing all around us," said a fireman. "I heard hollering inside," a police captain said. "There's no doubt that there were still some others in the place."

The Surfside, a Kosher establishment catering mainly to elderly Jews, was owned by Milton Rauer, who lived there with his wife, three sons, mother, and father-in-law.

Baby Killed By Sled Dog

WOODSTOCK, Ill. (AP)—A four-month-old boy was attacked and chewed to death Monday by an 80-pound sled dog, purchased for a watchdog. James Michael Henderson died in a hospital shortly after he was mauled and bitten more than a dozen times by the Alaskan malamute.

Woodstock Police Chief George Meyers said the dog squeezed through the door of the garage where it was kennelled and dragged the baby from the front seat of the family auto.

Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson, parents of the infant, were preparing to leave to drive to the hunting lodge near Alden, Ill., where Henderson works as a dog trainer and hunting guide. Chief Meyers said.

They had returned to the house for something, leaving ajar the front door of the auto while the baby rested on the seat. Henderson's wife, Kathryn, 17, had intended to feed the baby during the drive.

Meany, Negro Labor Official In Rights Clash

NEW YORK (UPI)—A civil rights debate erupted at the AFL-CIO biennial convention Monday between federation President George Meany and A. Philip Randolph, the group's only Negro vice president.

In an address to the convention delegates, Randolph, who is president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, warned that the American Negro's traditional loyalty to organized labor was being strained to the breaking point.

"It is being pulled apart not only by the persistence of racial discrimination in a number of unions," he said, "but also by the failure of labor to throw its full weight into the civil rights revolution in every community."

Such leaders as Meany and federation Vice President Walter Reuther, Randolph said, "must themselves be prepared to go into areas of racial tension—into cities like Birmingham and Danville—and speak to the rank and file in the moral and economic terms they can understand."

Meany reacted sharply. "I remember when we were the only ones in the forefront of this fight," he told the convention. "I can't understand that the way to get what you want is to abuse your friends."

He told the delegates that he refused "to accept the idea that the American trade movement should be scolded for lack of action on civil rights."

Meany said he understood the impatience of the Negro minority, which has waited so long to attain equal rights. But any complaints, he said, should be directed at "the big corporations who only give lip service to this."

Peking Ridicules 'K', Recalls 'Sacrifices'

TOKYO (AP)—The Red Chinese has worked hard to avert direct armed conflict between them and the United States. Examples of this are the Kopsalm-sing servant of the United States and claimed he didn't appreciate that Red China sacrificed itself in the Korean War to avert a direct U.S.-Soviet clash.

In the latest chapter of the running Soviet-Chinese ideological dispute, the Chinese also accused the Soviet Union of bluffing when it threatened to use nuclear weapons to support revolutionary struggles. Presumably, the Chinese had the October 1962 Cuban crisis in mind but they did not say so.

The Chinese made their claims in an 18,000-character article appearing Monday in the official Peking People's Daily and Red Flag, a theoretical journal. The article replied to Soviet charges that Peking sought to push the Soviet Union into a nuclear war with the West.

The Chinese replied that they considered it absolutely imperative that the Soviet Union should be the first to use nuclear weapons in a conventional war involving the West or in a revolution that the West was trying to stop.

The article also claimed that Red Chinese military forces averted a U.S.-Soviet war in 1958 when they opened the constant bombardment of the Nationalist-held islands of Quemoy and Matsu off the China mainland. This clash became known as the battle of Formosa Strait.

Listing all that the Chinese said they had done to preserve peace, the article told Soviet leaders:

"You had better cut out your sensation-mongering calumny. The Chinese Communist party is firmly opposed to a 'head-on clash' between the Soviet Union and the United States, and not former first lady of South Vietnam words only. In deeds, too, it Nam escaped injury."

Barghoorn Handcuffed By Red Police, 'Treated Like Jailbird,' Mother Says

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—a special celebration Monday night in honor of Barghoorn's return, the shy scholar secluded himself at his home Monday. Barghoorn answered some of his mail and caught up on some of the news since his arrest in Oct. 31 in Moscow on espionage charges. His list of telephone calls was disconnected, and he spent most of the day next door in his mother's apartment, where friends answered the telephone and the door.

The 32-year-old specialist in Soviet studies did go to his own one-room efficiency apartment, piled with books and papers, to talk with an Associated Press reporter.

The professor also said he did not expect to add any details at a later date to his statement made at a news conference Sunday night. As the Yale campus prepared day night.

Latin Nations Pledged Aid By President

Kennedy Strikes Peace, Prosperity Theme In Florida

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—President Kennedy hammered away on the accomplishments of his administration Monday during a campaign-paced Florida tour that was capped by his warning to Communists to keep hands off Latin America.

In what was billed as a major policy pronouncement on Latin America, the President told about 1,000 delegates to the Inter-American Press Association convention that:

"The American states must be ready to come to the aid of any government requesting aid to prevent a takeover linked to the policies of foreign communism rather than an internal desire for change. My country is prepared to do this," the President said.

He added: "We, in this hemisphere, must also use every resource at our command to prevent the establishment of another Cuba in this hemisphere. For if there is one principle which has run through the long history of the hemisphere, it is our common determination to prevent the rule of foreign systems or nations in the Americas. We have ultimately won this battle against every great power of the past. We will continue to wage and win it."

"Non-Political" Tour
Immediately following his speech before the newsmen, Kennedy, still wearing dinner clothes, was taken to the airport by helicopter and left for Washington by jet.

The White House had described Kennedy's tour as "non-political," but it appeared to be an open bid to bring Florida back into the Democratic column in the next presidential election.

In his various speeches and appearances the President struck a general theme of peace and prosperity. He:

—Claimed partial credit for high corporate profits;
—Said the Communist world had suffered sharp setbacks during the past two years;
—Denied his administration was out to "soak the rich";

—Said Cuban Premier Fidel Castro "remains a major danger to the United States."

In his talk before the press association, Kennedy also took an indirect slap at Argentina's cancellation of American oil company contracts.

He said that while no nation can tell another how to run its economy, no country should violate the rights of other nations operating within the bounds of international law inside its borders.

Cuban Issue Discussed
The President also reaffirmed his belief in the Alliance for Progress and warned against ignoring constitutional procedures in transferring power in Latin American nations.

Discussing what divides Cuba and the United States, Kennedy said: "It is the fact that a small band of conspirators has stripped the Cuban people of their freedom and handed over independence and sovereignty of the Cuban nation to forces beyond the hemisphere."

"They have made Cuba a victim of foreign imperialism, an

Otepka Case Figures Resign

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Two top State Department security officers resigned Monday in the aftermath of Senate charges that they were involved in "bugging" Otto F. Otepka's telephone.

John F. Reilly, State Department security officer director, and Elmer D. Hill, technical services division chief, quit in the face of accusations that they were involved in planting an electronic eavesdropper in the telephone of Otepka, also a State Department security officer. Both Reilly and Hill acknowledged they had unsuccessfully tried to tap the phone.

The State Department initiated dismissal action against Otepka last September on charges he improperly gave the Senate internal security subcommittee classified loyalty information.

In appealing his dismissal, Otepka said that his telephone was tapped and that this was an unauthorized investigation method.

Notice Served On Soviet Union By McNamara

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States has let the Soviet Union know that it has 400 million tons of nuclear force on tap in Europe, ready to be used in whatever quantity needed.

The official word came Monday from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara in a major policy speech understood to have been coordinated with the White House and State Department.

The timing and tenor of the prepared address to the Economic Club of New York made it obvious that this was a cold response to recent truculent talk by Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

It was intended also as new reassurance for Allies concerned about speculation of U.S. troop withdrawal from Europe.

Khrush Rattled Atoms
In the latest showdown on the Berlin autobahn, Khrushchev muttered menacingly about nuclear button-pushing. And there has been more Moscow growling about Soviet interests in Cuba.

The mighty nuclear potential—expressed in terms of TNT equivalent—in Europe is essentially in relatively small tactical weapons. It does not include the untold hundreds of millions of tons of TNT equivalent in missiles and bombs of the strategic forces, based in the United States, or in Polaris submarines deployed within range of Soviet targets.

McNamara's speech also covered defense preparedness on a worldwide basis and weapons systems for massive as well as local wars.

Thousands Of Warheads
"Today the thousands of U.S. warheads deployed in the Continent for the immediate defense of Europe have a combined explosive strength more than 10,000 times the force of the nuclear weapons used to end the second war," he said.

McNamara didn't reduce this to terms of tonnage.

However these factors are obvious: The bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki in the final days of the war each had a yield of about 20 kilotons—the equivalent of 20,000 tons of energy produced by conventional TNT detonation. This meant that the total tonnage was 40,000 tons. With this yardstick, the total yield for the thousands of warheads deployed in Europe would be 400 million tons or 400 megatons.

McNamara said that it must be the policy to continue to strengthen U.S. combat effectiveness.

Vote Of Confidence

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home won his first vote of confidence in the House of Commons Monday night when his Conservative government defeated a major on-slaught by the Labor party on the government's pre-election policies.

"Only stray bullets can now be heard," a 4 p.m. broadcast said. "A large number of national guardsmen have surrendered. They were well-treated."

But as night fell, Baghdad Radio indicated some resistance continued. It was broadcasting demands for the surrender of all national guard members and warned that any who continued to resist would be shot on sight.

Britain Rejects U.S. Appeal For Less Red Trade

PARIS (UPI)—The United States asked its Atlantic Allies Monday to slow down trade with the Soviet Union and Communist bloc nations and to stop granting long-term credit to them.

Refusal to set up controls, a U.S. statement said, would mean giving assistance to the Russians in building up their war machine and also would help ease the Soviet farm crisis.

Britain flatly rejected the appeal. The U.S. position was presented by Undersecretary of State George W. Ball to a special 4½-hour session of the permanent council of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. He called for an end to credit longer than five years.

Edward Heath, president of Britain's Board of Trade, told the council in blunt terms that his government is unwilling to make any such commitment. He said Britain is determined to press forward with trade among Communist nations in non-strategic goods.

Heath's statement was supported by Paul Martin, Canadian minister of external affairs. He said trade with the Communist bloc in non-strategic goods can help ease international tensions. Martin said the Red nations should not be "isolated."

Lewis Show Dropped

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Jerry Lewis announced today that he and the American Broadcasting Company will discontinue the comedian's two-hour weekly television show, effective Dec. 14.

Supreme Court Defers Ruling On Racial Sit-Ins

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the face of insistent pressures for early federal legislation on civil rights, the Supreme Court put off Monday for at least 60 days its decision on sit-in convictions. This decision has been awaited by some members of Congress and by the executive branch as a guide on the controversial public accommodations question on which the sit-ins focus.

The public accommodations section to forbid discrimination by privately owned businesses is perhaps the most hotly disputed point of the administration's pending program.

But the justices, splitting 5 to 4, decided to ask for added expressions of views on the broad constitutional question involved in the sit-in arrests.

That question is: Can states trespass laws be used against Negroes, or others, who stage sit-in demonstrations when a businessman refuses to serve them and asks them to leave? When the cases were argued Oct. 14-15, the solicitor general's lawyer said the Justice Department did not believe the court need reach this broad question. He said the cases could be decided "on constitutional adjudication."

But the lawyer said "should the court disagree and desire an expression of the views of the United States upon reargument, we would be prepared to make a full statement."

Before the justices are two Maryland cases, two from South Carolina and one from Florida. But there are thousands of other cases which could be affected by the outcome.

Gilpatric Defends Role In TFX Plane Contract

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate investigators disclosed Friday that a member of Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell Gilpatric's former law firm became an officer of General Dynamics Corporation a month after the huge TFX warplane contract was awarded to the company.

The disclosure came as the Senate investigations subcommittee questioned Gilpatric about possible conflict of interest in the contract, which went to General Dynamics last Nov. 21 despite military preferences for a rival bid submitted by the Boeing Co.

Subcommittee Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., accused Gilpatric of failing to reveal the full extent of his legal services performed for General Dynamics before he joined the Pentagon in 1961 as No. 2 civilian defense chief.

Gilpatric defended his role in the $7 billion TFX contract. He insisted that he was motivated by "considerations of national defense, and nothing else" in the TFX matter, and in any other defense contract that he has handled while a Pentagon official.

In almost six hours of questioning in open sessions under the glare of television lights, the subcommittee brought out these facts about Gilpatric's relations with General Dynamics, the winning TFX contractor, in the late 1950's while he was with the New York law firm of Cravath, Swaine — Moore:

—Maurice Moore, senior partner in the firm, was named to the General Dynamics board of directors one month after the TFX contract was awarded to the company.

"Oasis" Owner Pleads Guilty To Tax Evasion

BALTIMORE (AP) — Julius Salsbury, owner of the Oasis and another night club in Baltimore's bar-and-burlesque belt known as The Block, pleaded guilty Monday to two charges of federal income tax evasion.

Salsbury, 48, admitted evading taxes totaling $64,717 for 1959 and 1960.

At the same time, the government dropped charges that he owed $32,646 for 1956-1958.

Charges covering 1956-60 were returned against Salsbury April 13 by a federal grand jury.

Lake 'Monster' Camera-Shy

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—If there's a snake-headed bellowing monster in South Africa's Vaal Dam near Johannesburg it has so far defied all attempts to capture or photograph it.

Scores spent the weekend on the dam's shores hoping to get pictures of the monster and win a money prize offered by a Johannesburg newspaper, but they were disappointed.

People who claim to have seen the monster say it has a flat head about 8 inches wide and estimated its length at 20 to 25 feet.

The provincial government said attempts to shoot or net the monster would be followed by prosecution. The warning made it clear all creatures in the dam waters are protected and must not be destroyed.

Nazi Gestapo Officer Given Life Sentence

HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—Guenther Fuchs, 52, a former officer in the Nazi Gestapo, was sentenced by a German court Monday to life imprisonment for the wartime murder of Jews in Lodz, Poland.

Capital punishment was abolished in West Germany in 1949.

With Fuchs in the dock during the six-week trial was Dr. Otto Bradfisch, former Lodz Gestapo chief. He received 10 years in prison at hard labor/day.

New "Ear" Could Help Solve Dolphin Language

BALTIMORE (AP)—Two scientists unveiled a new mechanical ear Monday which could help man eavesdrop more closely on the wonderful language of the dolphin.

Eventually, they said, it might even enable man to converse with that sea-going creature of superior intelligence and send it on errands—like collecting water samples and locating lost submarines.

From a less selfish viewpoint, it also could provide important new clues about the whole world of communications among animals, they added.

The device was described by Leo S. Balandis and George Rand, engineers for the Sperry Gyroscope Company. Invented by Robert Hawkins of Sperry and known as Scepton (Spectral Comparative Pattern Recognizer), it is a miniature computer which can memorize, distinguish and react to sights and sounds.

—Gilpatric's former law firm was named counsel for General Dynamics at the same time.

—Gilpatric attended 19 board meetings of the giant General Dynamics industrial complex, and advised it on about 15 proposed corporate merger plans from 1958 to 1960 while he served as "special counsel" or legal adviser to the company.

Body Of Slain Man Is Found Near Frederick

FREDERICK (AP) — A country dweller exercising his dog Monday discovered the bullet-punctured body of a man sprawled in a clump of bushes two miles east of here.

State Police identified the victim as Homer Ellsworth Harris, 55, of Frederick. The body, clad in khaki trousers, heavy work-type shoes and a plaid shirt, was found just off a county road, they said.

Police said the body had two holes in the chest and one in the back, all apparently made by bullets more than .22 caliber in size.

No weapon was found in an early search of the area.

State Trooper Ronald Twigg said the body was discovered by Donald Lee Shewbridge, who lives in the area and had let his dog out for a romp. The boy went searching for the animal a short time later and found the dead man between the county road and the Monocacy River.

Investigators said the man had been dead since about midnight Sunday. Earlier estimates had placed the time of death about 24 hours earlier.

A check of State Police fingerprints turned up no identification of the victim, and his prints were then sent on to Washington for a check by the FBI.

Also being checked were tire marks and footprints found in the area.

Latin Nations

(Continued from Page 1) instrument of the policy of others, a weapon in an effort dictated by external powers, to subvert the other American republics.

"This and this alone divides us," he said.

Kennedy said the United States would offer "the hand of friendship and assistance to Cuba if the Castro regime was removed from power."

He said once this barrier fell "we will be ready and anxious to work with the Cuban people in pursuit of those progressive goals which, a few short years ago, stirred the hopes and the sympathy of many people throughout the entire hemisphere."

But Kennedy said the goals proclaimed in the Sierra Maestra, where Castro based his revolution, "were betrayed in Havana."

A cheering crowd of about 4,000 greeted Kennedy on his arrival at Miami, including a half dozen members of Brigade 2506, the military unit that made the ill-fated April, 1961, invasion of Cuba.

The brigade members welcomed the President enthusiastically despite reports Miami's Cuban colony had become disenchanted with the administration's foreign policies concerning Cuba.

Kennedy's last speech of the day in Tampa was before about 1,500 members of the United Steel Workers of America.

In that talk the President contrasted the nation's economic picture between 1919 and 1929 with the rapid economic growth of recent years. He credited organized labor, the Democratic party and the principles of Franklin D. Roosevelt for the Gestapo chief. He received 10 years in prison at hard labor/day.

Rep. Vinson, 80, Plans To Retire At End Of Term

WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the enduring monuments of Congress, Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., turned 80 Monday and said he will retire at the end of his present term.

Vinson has served in the House of Representatives longer than any man in history—it will be 50 years on Nov. 14 next year.

In the course of half a century here, the small-town lawyer from Milledgeville, Ga., became an unquestioned autocrat of things military as chairman of the House Armed Services Committee.

Over the years some generals and admirals have bowed and scraped before him in almost comical deference while he seemed to make a point of not remembering their names.

Vinson is one of the half-dozen or so men who wield the real power in the House.

Along with the deference of the brass came the tremendous respect of his colleagues for the vast and detailed knowledge of the sprawling defense establishment that is locked in Vinson's brain.

They nicknamed him "The Swamp Fox." "Admiral of the Ocean Sea," but mainly "Uncle Carl."

Blue-eyed and eagle-beaked, with a twangy, cornpone-flavored voice, Vinson runs his committee with a firm hand. He once told a colleague the secret is not to get all the members mad at him at once. Separately he can handle them.

Once when his name was mentioned as the next secretary of defense, Vinson said, "Shucks, I'd rather go on running the Pentagon from up here."

He had a sharp run-in with the current secretary, Robert S. McNamara, over McNamara's plans to shelve production of the controversial RS70 supersonic bomber.

Vinson got his committee to the point of passing a bill "directing" McNamara to continue with the RS70.

But the day before the vote President Kennedy invited Vinson to stroll with him in the White House rose garden, and afterwards the mandatory wording was stricken. McNamara had won. But the respect between McNamara and Vinson is mutual and apparently unfeigned.

Cuban Demand Spurned By U.S.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States rejected Monday Cuba's demand that the Guantanamo Naval Base be given up as the price for establishing a nuclear free zone in Latin America.

Charles C. Stelle, U.S. disarmament negotiator, also told the General Assembly's main political committee that the United States would vote against a resolution seeking an international conference for drawing up a treaty outlawing use of nuclear weapons.

Cuban Ambassador Carlos M. Lechuga declared that before his country would agree to any proposal to ban nuclear weapons from Latin America the United States would have to agree to put Puerto Rico and the Panama Canal in the proposed zone.

He added also that the United States would have to abandon its big naval installation at Guantanamo, which he describes as a base for being used "by U.S. intelligence agents for 'sabotage and murder' in Cuba."

Sterilization Trial Of German Surgeon Opens

HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—One of the most controversial trials in recent German legal history starts Tuesday when a German surgeon faces court on charges of sterilizing more than 1,300 women patients.

Dr. Axel Dohrn, 55, former chief surgeon of the nearby Burgdorf District Hospital, is the defendant in the case, which has provoked nationwide discussion of modern ethics and birth control. He assumes responsibility for the operations and defends the sterilizations as being the only means of keeping women away from abortionists.

The number of abortions in West Germany has been unofficially estimated at two million a year.

Dr. Dohrn is charged under a Nazi law that forbids sterilization of healthy German women. The law, which contrasts with Nazi programs to sterilize Jews and people of Eastern Europe, is still in force in some German states after a high court ruled it was not tainted by Nazi ideology.

The prosecution holds that the operations, even if submitted to voluntarily, are also punishable under the German criminal code, if they "violate ethical standards."

Dr. Dohrn says his patients agreed to the operations and also had their husbands' approval. In most cases, he contends, the women were mothers of three or more children.

The prosecution counters that it will prove in 149 cases that Dr. Dohrn cannot invoke this line of defense. Those cases, according to the prosecution, include sterilizations of unmarried women and of wives still in their teens or early 20s.

Investigation started after a fellow physician filed a criminal suit against Dohrn, telling about the sterilizations. Dohrn was fired as chief surgeon early in 1961. The doctor who denounced him now holds Dohrn's post.

S&L Defendant Agrees To Turn State Evidence

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP)—Constance J. (Gus) Basiliko, a real estate developer, agreed Monday to turn state's evidence, thereby sidestepping prosecution for conspiracy in a savings and loan case.

Trial of a six-count conspiracy indictment against Basiliko was postponed indefinitely after State's Attorney Leonard T. Kardy of Montgomery County said Basiliko agreed to appear as a witness for the prosecution of a similar indictment against Murray Michael, head of the state-closed Military Service Savings & Loan Association of Silver Spring, Md.

Kardy said that under Maryland law, Basiliko's testimony for the state would automatically give him immunity from prosecution in the case against Military Service.

Both men were indicted for conspiracy to defraud Military Service shareholders and conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses.

Kardy disclosed the strategy after a courtroom conference with Circuit Judge Walter H. Moorman immediately after the two cases were called for trial. Also present were A. Slater Clark, Basiliko's attorney, and C. William Taylor, representing Michael.

Michael and Basiliko were among 13 persons indicted in May 1962 by a Montgomery County grand jury investigating four state-closed savings and loan associations. The two bills came about six months after Circuit Court approved the Maryland attorney general's receivership petition against Military Service.

Basiliko was convicted in 1956 of conspiracy stemming from rights-of-way purchases by the State Roads Commission. Sentenced to two years in jail, he won a new trial on appeal, then pleaded guilty in 1957 with Kardy's recommendation he be fined $2,000. He paid the fine.

In its receivership action, the Maryland attorney general charged Military Service was insolvent. The state's petition also charged Michael was an officer in other companies to which Military Service had loaned $1.2 million.

Fairchild Stratos Contract Extended

HAGERSTOWN (AP)—The contract between Fairchild Stratos Corp. and Local 842 of the United Auto Workers was extended without change for one year Monday.

The contract covers about 1,000 employees with Fairchild's Aircraft - Missiles Division. The employees are in the engineering and technical, office and clerical, and production and maintenance departments.

Jesse J. Fulton Jr., president of the union, said the extension demonstrated the willingness of his union to help Fairchild win new business.

The contract would have expired Jan. 17, 1964, and negotiations on a new contract were about to begin. James T. Drescher, general manager of the Aircraft - Missiles Division and a senior vice president of Fairchild, said:

"We appreciate the cooperation of our employees in approving this extension. During the year ahead we will continue to

Stockholders Told B&O May Net $5 Million In '63

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad is doing so well under its newly approved control by the Chesapeake & Ohio that it will probably net $5 million this year, its president said Monday.

Jervis Langdon Jr., B&O president, painted the rosy picture at the annual meeting of stockholders.

About 60 persons representing 80.37 shares of the company's stock attended the session and re-elected 12 directors.

They are Walter J. Touhy, C&O president; Cyrus S. Eaton, C&O board chairman; John D. Biggers, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, E. Paul Gangewere, Edmund L. Grimes, John E. Kusik, John E. Motz, James Parker Nolen, Howard E. Simpson and Arthur W. Steudel.

Langdon said the expected $5 million net profit for 1963, bar-

Maryland News In Brief

PIKESVILLE, Md. (AP)—

Four deer were killed by automobiles on the Eastern Shore during the weekend, State Police reported Monday.

No one was seriously injured in the accidents but State Police cautioned motorists to watch for deer crossing highways. Four other deer were killed on the new Northeastern Expressway, the 42-mile toll highway which President Kennedy helped dedicate Thursday.

Game officials said deer are on the move this time of year because of the mating season and the problem should grow worse when the hunting season opens Dec. 5.

GERMANTOWN, Md. (AP)—Three Maryland colleges received a total of $21,640 Monday in grants from the Atomic Energy Commission.

Goucher College of Towson, Md., received $9,000, Morgan State in Baltimore $4,640 and Maryland State at Princess Anne, Md. $8,000. The money will be used to buy laboratory equipment for atomic instruction in engineering and physical sciences courses.

SNOW HILL, Md. (AP)—A group of about 40 officials and businessmen of Worcester County will spend Monday and Tuesday discussing mutual problems with local and state officials.

The group led by William G. Kerbin, chairman of the Worcester County Economic Development Commission, made stops in Salisbury, Cambridge and Easton Monday before winding up the day with a session with Gov. Tawes in Annapolis.

Tuesday, the group traveling by bus will visit Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin of Baltimore and meet with Maryland's congressional delegation in Washington.

CAMBRIDGE (AP)—How to prepare applicants for a federal-state vocational training program will be discussed Tuesday night at a meeting of a subcommittee of the Cambridge Human Relations Committee.

Dr. Richard LaRose, chairman of the education subcommittee, said up to 50 volunteers are needed to tutor applicants for the program scheduled to begin early next year in Salisbury and Chestertown.

work toward a profitable and secure future for the division."

Goldstein May Enter Senate Race Monday

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein has scheduled a public reception in Baltimore next Monday at which he is expected to announce his candidacy for the U.S. Senate.

The reception will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Hotel Emerson.

Goldstein said Monday he has mailed "several thousand" invitations to friends inviting them to the reception. "I don't have the name and address of everybody to send them an invitation, but I would like for the general public to know they're also invited," Goldstein added.

The 50-year-old Prince Frederick Democrat, now serving his second four-year term as comptroller, is expected to seek nomination next May to the U.S. Senate seat now held by Republican J. Glenn Beall.

He has not yet officially confirmed his candidacy. He said in the "dear friend" letter mailed over the weekend:

"Because there has been so much political speculation during the past several months, I feel that I have an obligation to the people of Maryland as a public servant, and to you as a friend to make my plans known."

The letters were written on Goldstein's personal stationery. The comptroller said he also personally paid for the postage.

Atomic Generator To Run Lighthouse

BALTIMORE (AP)—An atomic generator the size of a trash can that will operate an unmanned lighthouse beacon and foghorn was turned over to the Coast Guard for testing Monday.

The generator, developed by Martin Co., will be installed in a lighthouse at the entrance of Baltimore harbor after initial testing by the Coast Guard. Eventually, the generator will be removed to a remote location to be chosen later where it will eliminate the need for a crew of three or four men now required to operate a diesel-powered lighthouse.

The nuclear generator will supply a continuous flow of electricity for 10 years without refueling, Martin Co. says, and will generate 60 watts.

It has been designated SNAP-7B. SNAP stands for Systems for Nuclear Auxiliary Power. Martin built it for the Atomic Energy Commission.

The fuel is a form of Strontium 90 called radioactive strontium titanate. Thermocouples convert the heat from the fuel directly into electricity.

The generator is 34½ inches long, 22 inches in diameter and, with its three-inch shield of depleted uranium to prevent radiation, weighs 4,600 pounds.

A similar generator will be placed in the Gulf of Mexico early next year to supply electricity for a Navy Nomad weather barge.

Similar atomic power units are in use by the Department of Defense for satellites and automatic weather stations.

The first Strontium 90 generator recently completed a two-year test on Axel Heiberg Island several hundred miles from the North Pole, where it was used in an unmanned weather station.

Crow, used in the sense of bragging, originated in cock-fighting, where the victor crowned in triumph over his opponent.

First American-engraved map of the United States was made in 1783.

'Adults Only' Label For Films Advised

BALTIMORE (AP)—A legislative study committee has tentatively agreed to recommend that certain films be labeled "for adults only."

The stipulation would prevent persons under 18 from viewing films the State Board of Motion Picture Censors felt they shouldn't see.

The head of the study group, Sen. James A. Pine, D-Balto. County, said legislative adoption of the proposal would mean the censor board would have to hire more inspectors.

New Discovery Now Makes It Possible To Shrink And Heal Hemorrhoids Without Surgery

Stops Itch—Relieves Pain In Minutes

New York, N. Y. (Special): A world-famous institute has discovered a new substance which has the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids without surgery. The sufferer first notices almost unbelievable relief in minutes from itching, burning and pain. Then this substance speeds up healing of the injured tissues all while it quickly reduces painful swelling.

Tests conducted under a doctor's observations proved this so—even in cases of 10 to 20 years' standing. The secret is the new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—now offered in both ointment or suppository form called Preparation H®.

In addition to actually shrinking piles—Preparation H lubricates and makes bowel movements less painful. It helps to prevent infection (a principal cause of hemorrhoids).

Only Preparation H contains this magic new substance which quickly helps heal injured cells back to normal and stimulates regrowth of healthy tissue again. Just ask for Preparation H Ointment or Preparation H Suppositories (easier to use away from home). Available at all drug counters.

BEGINS PROGRAM — The Allegany County Animal Welfare Society, using a donation from Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, has inaugurated a new program of giving temporary distemper shots to all adoptable puppies, which it hopes will become self sustaining, so it may become a permanent thing. Giving the first shots is Merwin Hast, dog warden. He is being assisted by Mrs. Bette Adam, right, and Mrs. Florence Finan, left. Both local veterinarians favor the shots, for they said many dogs adopted have bad cases of distemper and are hard to cure.

Cookie Sale, Jingle Party To Be Held

Reports featured the meeting of the Supreme Forest Woodman Circle, Queen City Grove 11, held Friday evening at the WOW hall. Mrs. Willard Auvil presided.

A cookie and candy sale will be held December 9 at the Woodman hall, beginning at 1 o'clock. Proceeds are for a Christmas basket for a needy family. Mrs. Eleanor Crabtree, ways and means chairman, also reported on the Coin Club dinner.

Other reports included the success of the candy sale, given by Mrs. Alberta Lindner; and that Mrs. Edna German, LaVale, is a patient in Sacred Heart Hospital and Mrs. Catherine Bonner, Fifth Street, has returned home from Memorial Hospital.

Reservations for the Christmas party were taken by Mrs. Romona Harvey, social activities chairman. It is to be December 14 at 6:30 p. m., at Cas Taylor's Dugout. Jingles will be exchanged. Each member is to bring a can or other item of food for a Christmas basket for a family. Mrs. Auvil and Mrs. Sue Shaffer will be hostesses for the meeting January 17. Mrs. Lindner and Mrs. Virginia Nave were hostesses, Friday.

Eckhart Club Plans Yule Dinner

Plans for a Christmas party and covered dish dinner were made by the Eckhart Homemakers Club at the meeting conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Loar. It will be held December 8 at 6 p. m., in the recreation room of Eckhart Methodist Church. Each member is to bring a jingle gift and a covered dish. Mrs. Florence Lewis and Mrs. Mary Shinholt were named co-chairmen for the program. Mrs. Edna Lancaster, Mrs. Margie Wright, Mrs. Genevieve Minnick and Miss Leona Phillips, table decorations and Miss Elizabeth Hansel, gifts.

Hostesses for January were announced. They are Mrs. Augie Thomas, Mrs. Minnie Thomas, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Alice Wonn.

Following the flag salute, the Lord's Prayer was said in unison. The hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God" was sung, with Mrs. Mildred LaPorta, at the piano. Reports of committees were given and it was announced that flowers have been sent to sick members. Cards of thanks were read.

Readings featured the program. They included, "My Get-up and Go Has Gotten and Went" by Mrs. Mollie Dudley; "Thanksgiving," Miss Dolores Faltin; "Thanksgiving Day" Miss Ora Myers; "An Evening in the Park," Miss Hansel; "Lily of the Valley," was read by Miss Phillips and then sung by the group. Mrs. Lewis read, "A Bell Is Not A Bell Until It Rings," and Mrs. Shinholt, "Gratitude Makes for Happiness."

Hostesses were Mrs. Grace Quinn, Mrs. Laura Saathoff, Mrs. Minnie Sites and Mrs. Ada Mae Ryan.

Students Pledged

Six college students from Moorefield, W. Va., were among the 200 recently pledged by 11 sororities, according to the "Daily Athenaeum" of West Virginia University.

They are Miss Deborah Sindy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sindy and Miss Victoria Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wise Jr., Charleston, to Delta Gamma social sorority; Miss Martha Jane Hamrick, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. C. G. Hamrick, Moundsville, formerly of Moorefield, to Alpha Xi Delta; Howard Broughton Bean, to Kappa Alpha fraternity; Paul Vincent Williams, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Thomas Jackson Hawse III, to Delta Tau Delta.

Jayncee Holiday Bazaar Will Have Yule Program Society Sponsors Crusade

The Golden Link members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Mapleside Methodist Church were honored and the society voted to be one of the sponsors of the "Urgent Needs Crusade."

The program was led by Mrs. Dorothy Evans, who read the Scripture, followed by prayer in unison. A film, "It's A Busy Life," was shown by Mrs. Doris Proudfoot and Mrs. Jean Dicken. It stressed the importance of the society, the types of work and people reached through it and the missions supported by it.

Membership pins were awarded by Mrs. Mary Davis to Mrs. Florence Jackson, 80 years old, who is the oldest charter member of the society; Mrs. Cora Karnes, 82, the oldest member of the church; and Mrs. Evers Smith. Mrs. Karnes' pin was accepted by her daughter, Mrs. Lenora Kimmel, and Mrs. Smith's by Mrs. Clara Crawford, an intimate friend.

A past president pin was presented to Mrs. Lillian Dorn and Mrs. Doris Proudfoot; and a president's pin to Mrs. Colleen Lapp. While these pins were being presented, Mrs. Evans explained the meaning of the symbols on them.

Yellow corsages with gold ribbons were given to Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Dorn, Mrs. Edna Lapp, Mrs. Gertrude Collins, Mrs. Emma Collins, Mrs. Sarah Davis, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Rose Rice, Mrs. Anice Ellis, Mrs. Lottie Redhead and Mrs. Kimmel for Mrs. Karnes, representing future Golden Link members. Corsages also were given to Mrs. Norma Thorn, wife of the minister, Mrs. Lapp and Mrs. Evans. They were made by Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Thelma Weaver.

A meditation, "Today We Praise" was conducted by Mrs. Sarah Davis and the closing prayer was given by Rev. Fred Thorn.

During the short business session, Mrs. Lapp spoke of the Urgent Needs Crusade for the Methodist conference. Mrs. Dicken reported $80.55 was collected by the Youth Fellowship in the Mapleside area for UNICEF. Mrs. Davis reported that the children's packets made last month have been sent to Brazil. The annual church supper was discussed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dicken, Mrs. Emma Collins, Mrs. Mary Davis, and Mrs. Weaver. The tables were decorated with golden chains, napkins and favors. The centerpiece was of large gold and lavender mums. The two tiered cake, decorated in gold and white, was cut by Mrs. Florence Jackson. During the social hour, Mrs. Frances Siebert sang, "In the Garden," for her grandmother, Mrs. Jackson. Mrs. Jessie Dorn accompanied her at the piano. Rev. Thorn and Mrs. Gertrude Collins spoke briefly.

The next meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party and will be December 6, at the home of Mrs. Lapp, Weires Avenue, LaVale, with Mrs. Jeanette Shobe cohostess. Secret sisters will be revealed and new ones selected. There were 26 members and guests present.

Yule Party Is Planned

The Past Councilors and Officers Club of Queen City Council 114, will hold a Christmas dinner December 5 at 6 p. m., at Nave's Dining Room. Jingles and secret sister gifts will be exchanged.

Following the meeting at the home of Mrs. Catherine Emrick a traveling basket party was held for the benefit of the flower fund. Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Florence House, Mrs. Elsie Nixon and Mrs. Marguerite Chaney.

Century Club Board Will Meet

The executive board of the LaVale Century Club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. M. Wilson, National Highway, on Thursday at 9:30 a. m. Mrs. William W. Hoover will preside. Committee reports are to be given.

An outline of the Christmas Caravan will be given by Mrs. Jack Higgins, chairman. It will be December 6. Mrs. Raymond E. Twaites, Jr., program chairman, is to report on plans for the November 26 general membership meeting. Mrs. Eugene V. McCune, library chairman, will tell of the remodeling of the study room at the LaVale Library.

Different home decorations are being planned for the fourth annual Christmas Caravan. Mrs. Higgins said last evening. Mrs. William McKee, house chairman, adds that each of the four caravan homes will feature unusual and easily adaptable holiday ideas.

The committees working on the homes are: for the decoration of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tesh's home on the National Highway. Mrs. William M. Lee-son, chairman; Mrs. John G. Lucas, co-chairman, assisted by Mrs. William A. Cook, Mrs. Douglas W. Wynn, Mrs. Robert W. Huck, Mrs. Charles A. Orlick, Mrs. Ralph W. Price and Mrs. Donald Workman. Decorating the home of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Warden of Henry Drive will be Mrs. J. Edgar MacManniss, chairman; Mrs. George B. Newman, co-chairman; assisted by Mrs. Thomas Seymour, Mrs. Charles J. Dressman, and Mrs. Lawrence W. Brown. Mrs. Charles C. Irby is chairman of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor on Braddock Road. She is assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Buchanan, Mrs. Edward K. Shirey, Mrs. Joseph Coulehan and Mrs. Charles Alford. Mrs. William S. Firey is chairman of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lapp of Weires Avenue. Assisting her are: Mrs. Wilbert R. Theis, Jr., Mrs. C. Martin Stickley, Jr. and Mrs. William Bruce.

The Caravan also will feature a gift bazaar and tea to be held in the Fellowship Hall of the LaVale Methodist Church from 1 to 6 p. m. Tickets may be purchased from any Century Club member, the LaVale Drug Store, or by calling Mrs. Harold W. Francis, 729-2410.

Also at the meeting, plans for a Christmas party for the children, after the Jaycee shopping tour, was discussed. Jack Wagoner of Ren Roy Flower Shop was guest speaker. He demonstrated how to make Christmas centerpieces and door arrangements.

Guests were Mrs. Donald Welsh, Mrs. Virgil Twigg and Mrs. Roy Phillips. The next meeting will be December 11.

Birthday Dinner Planned

Plans were formulated for the annual birthday dinner in January and a Thanksgiving program presented at the meeting of the Semper Fidelis Sunday School class of First EUB Church. It was held at the parsonage with Mrs. E. E. Miller and Mrs. Edgar Shoemaker hostesses.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Jesse Weaver. Taking part were Mrs. Clyde Wolford, Mrs. Elmer Freeland, Mrs. Walter Long, and Miss Charlotte Wolford. The class will put poinsettias in the church at Christmas.

Others present were Mrs. Violet Hasenbuehler, Mrs. Edgar See, Mrs. Donald Pentoney, Mrs. Nettie Winterstine, Mrs. Robert Meyers, Mrs. Rith Sheetz, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Chester Crabtree, Mrs. Melvin Wharton, Mrs. William Knotts, Mrs. Ralph Isiminger, Sr., and Mrs. J. H. Sommerkamp.

Social Chart

A talk on drugs will be given by E. R. Kellough at the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Medical Society of Allegany County, tonight at the home of Mrs. Lester Kiefer, 622 Washington Street.

Final plans for the Christmas party, December 13, will be made at the meeting of the Cedarettes, which will be held tomorrow evening at 8 at the home of Mrs. Jack Carnell, 612 Memorial Avenue.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Know Your Color

Men love color. And there is no facet of fashion which projects your individuality as well as color.

With the most brilliant of all seasons coming up there is a whirl of festivities on the many-splendored calendar which gives colors its cue. So you can be as colorful as you like.

To look your best, be sure when you choose a color that you understand it, and it understands you. Of course, be sure to distinguish the brilliant from the garish. In order to choose and use the right color properly, you must be familiar with its traits, and you must enjoy them. Each season new colors are introduced. Often they have misleading names. The trick is to cultivate the ability to see a hue as it is — for instance, if you hear a color described as "bronze green" — to have a mental picture of how it looks.

Before you can choose what shades to wear and know which are most flattering to your face, it's imperative to realize your color type. Then the clothing shades that heighten its beauty can be unerringly recognized. Because of its importance we have collected all this information in a 14-page booklet called "Your Color Type." The shades given for each "Personal Color-scope" were selected to three laws of color. The booklet is 10 cents and may be ordered by writing to me, John Robert Powers, c/o this newspaper. Be sure and enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Whether you're a cool or warm blonde, brunette, titian or gray, or an "intermediate," you will find the sure way to discover the colors that are most pleasing to you.

After you choose a color, be careful to match your make-up — since your face is usually the center of interest in any personal design. And be sure the make-up is appropriate for the time of day. If you have an early evening engagement, select make-up in a color suitable for both sunlight and moon glow.

William McCleary, hostess; Mrs. Kathryn Bixler, Mrs. Catherine Kilroy, instructor; Mrs. William Norris, Mrs. George Connor, standing, Mrs. William McLean and Mrs. Sylvester Shircliff. The courts Christmas party will be December 16. All officers are in charge.

Yule Ideas Seen At Open House

The Pleasant Valley Homemakers formulated plans for a Christmas observance at the meeting, held in the form of a Thanksgiving dinner, Wednesday evening at Barton's Restaurant.

Each member is to bring a toy for a child in the hospital to the Christmas dinner, which will be at the home of Mrs. Bette Davis, Pleasant Valley. Also at that time, members will plan for a basket for a needy family for Christmas.

The group also discussed the trip 10 members made to Silver Spring Civic Center, where the state homemakers held an open house, featuring a display of Christmas gift ideas, which the local women will present to other members.

Attending the dinner were Mrs. Mollie Smith, Mrs. Earl Manges, Mrs. Lola Heavner, Mrs. Catherine Dermer, Mrs. James Davis, Jr., Mrs. Robert Alstetter, Mrs. Carl Heavner, Mrs. Ambrose Miltenberger, Mrs. Carl Wilson and Mrs. J. W. Turner. Guests were Mrs. Bessie Hartsock and Mrs. Vima Turke.

Edna Morrissey Heads Allegany Beauticians

Allegany County Hairdressers Association elected officers and planned its Christmas observance at the regular meeting, conducted by Mrs. Alberta Lindner at the Tri-State Beauty Academy.

Mrs. Edna Morrissey was elected president; Mrs. Eloise Ack, first vice president; Mrs. Lindner, second vice president; Miss Elsie Henry, historian; Miss Ethel Henry, treasurer; Mrs. Jean Winkler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ruth Campbell, recording secretary; Mrs. Genevieve Murphy, sergeant at arms; and Mrs. Frances Huster, liaison officer.

The Christmas dinner will be held December 2. It will be at the Elks Club, beginning at 6:30. Reservations are to be made by November 25, with Mrs. Morrissey, 724-3613.

A report on the state convention was given by Mrs. Virginia Nave. A trade and educational show was planned for September 28-29 at the Emerson Hotel, Baltimore. She reported that at the convention, it was announced ed a new ruling that a unit president must attend at least two state meetings a year.

Opti-Mrs. To Meet

Members of the Opti-Mrs. Club will discuss Christmas plans at the regular meeting, which will be held tomorrow evening. It will be at the Fort Cumberland Hotel at 8 o'clock. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Elizabeth Eyer, Mrs. Georgianna Nonnenmann and Mrs. Louise Walker.

Club Elects

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoelzer were elected president of the Married Couples Club of Centre Street Church; and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Alderton, secretary-treasurer. They will be installed December 13.

James Rinard spoke on "Weather Phenomena" at the meeting in Asbury hall. Approximately 45 attended.

Omicron Chapter, BSP will meet tonight at the home of Miss Virginia Shircliff, 711 Montgomery Avenue.

District Nurses To Meet

District 1, Maryland State Nurses Association will meet tomorrow evening at Sacred Heart Hospital. Mrs. Dorothy Emerson will conduct the business session, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Shockey will report on the Maryland Nurses Association and Maryland League of Nursing meetings which she attended last month in Baltimore.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Catherine Armbruster and Mrs. Stella Sell.

Mrs. Lily Lehman, 227 Pear Street, has returned from Valley Forge General Hospital, Phoenixville, Pa., where she was a medical patient.

Ann Landers . . . Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The other evening my wife and I were sitting around after supper. The TV set suddenly broke down so we began to talk.

My wife asked me a rather strange question. She said, "If you were in a row boat with me and your mother, and the boat tipped over, which one of us would you try to save?" I told her that since I know she is a good swimmer and my mother is an older woman with arthritis I would try to save my mother.

She became red in the face and hollered, "You dirty dog. If that's the way you feel why don't you pack your clothes and go live with your mother?"

I would like your opinion on YRH-meahpbc wchwe ehrsTHH whether or not my wife was justified in blowing her top. I tried to give her an honest answer. Was I wrong? Should I have just said, "You, dear" and let it go at that? I'd like your views.

—HENRY
DEAR HENRY: That question is an old one and it's usually good for a four-door family fight.

A better answer would have been, "I would never go in a boat without making certain that there were life preservers for everybody." It's not only a good answer, but a good policy.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a girl who has always loved hand music. My big ambition was to be in a band. Now that I am a freshman in high school I have signed up for trumpet lessons. I really preferred the clarinet but they have plenty of clarinet players and they were short on trumpets, so I agreed to help them out.

The problem is my father. He says he can't stand to hear me practice because it gives him a headache. Furthermore, it reminds him of when he was in the army and he says he is breaking out with the same nervous itch he had then.

I know I'm not very good yet. Ann, but how can I get better if I don't practice?

The best time for me to practice is early in the morning, about 6:30 a. m. My father's alarm doesn't go off until 7:30 and he says he needs that extra hour. Both my father and I would like your opinion on this. Is he wrong or am I?—SARA

DEAR SARA: Sorry, Toots, but I'm casting my vote with dad. You can practice either after school or at school. Most schools have practice rooms which you can use if you ask—and I hope yours is one of them.

DEAR ANN: What makes people lie and pretend to be what they are not? A woman who came to work in this office recently lost no time in telling us all about her fine furniture, her exquisite linen and china. She described her elegant background and well-behaved children.

Sunday I was driving by her home. She was in the yard so I stopped for a moment. I could tell she was embarrassed that I had caught her in a filthy housedress, and without shoes. She did not invite me in but one of her children came out of the house. He was eating something out of a pan. (He must have been the cultured one.)

The house needed painting and the porch furniture was broken and faded. The yard looked like a jungle.

Yesterday at the office she started in again about her elegant surroundings. She seems to have forgotten I was there. How can people be like this?

—DUMBSTRUCK
DEAR STRUCK: This woman sounds like a pathological liar. Such people want desperately to be something they are not so they paint beautiful word pictures and persuade themselves that the lies are true. The fact this woman persists in repeating the fantasies after your visit is evidence that she is clearly out-to-lunch.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Woman To Woman

By PATRICIA MC CORMACK
WESTPORT, Conn. (UPI)—Shooting occurs regularly at the nation's newest "key club"—lucked in the basement of an ice cream parlor here.

But no one calls the police. The 100 members of the key club shoot pool.

Phil Harrison, who owns the Gay Nineties pool room and ice cream parlor, sometimes has nightmares, however.

He dreams that a huge old folks' home opens within the confines of this town made famous by Sloan Wilson in his book, "The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit."

If that happened, Harrison might lose at least half his shirt.

His ice cream emporium, you see, operates on the belief that certain people deserve free ice cream. Among those granted special privileges at the parlor are men and women 65 years of age and over.

Celebrities Pay

So far, vanity being all, no celebrities who have spooned sweets at the parlor have taken advantage of the free food based on age.

Neither have members of the black tie parties staged at the parlor opening nights by famous persons attending the Westport Country Playhouse.

Celebrities have included Elizabeth Taylor, Debbie Reynolds, Eddie Fisher, David Susskind, Jackie Robinson, Gene Tierney, Errol Flynn and Michael Todd. The signatures of several hundred other notables adorn the parlor's menu. No Richard Burton—yet.

The special offers on items 75 cents or less for those between 80 and 85 years: Half price, any day; between 85 and 90, three-fourths off; 90 and over, no charge.

Expectant mothers aren't charged a cent for eating a 75 cent item. On Thursdays, customers sporting handlebar mustaches enjoy the same privilege. On Tuesdays, those 65 and over pay just half.

The free goodies are part of Harrison's premise that only good remembrances are associated with the ice cream parlor of the Gay Nineties.

The place also has wire-back chairs, marble top tables, gilt gas lights, an ornate mirrored back bar, a nickelodeon, nickel push-button flicker machines—and a smorgasbord of penny candy.

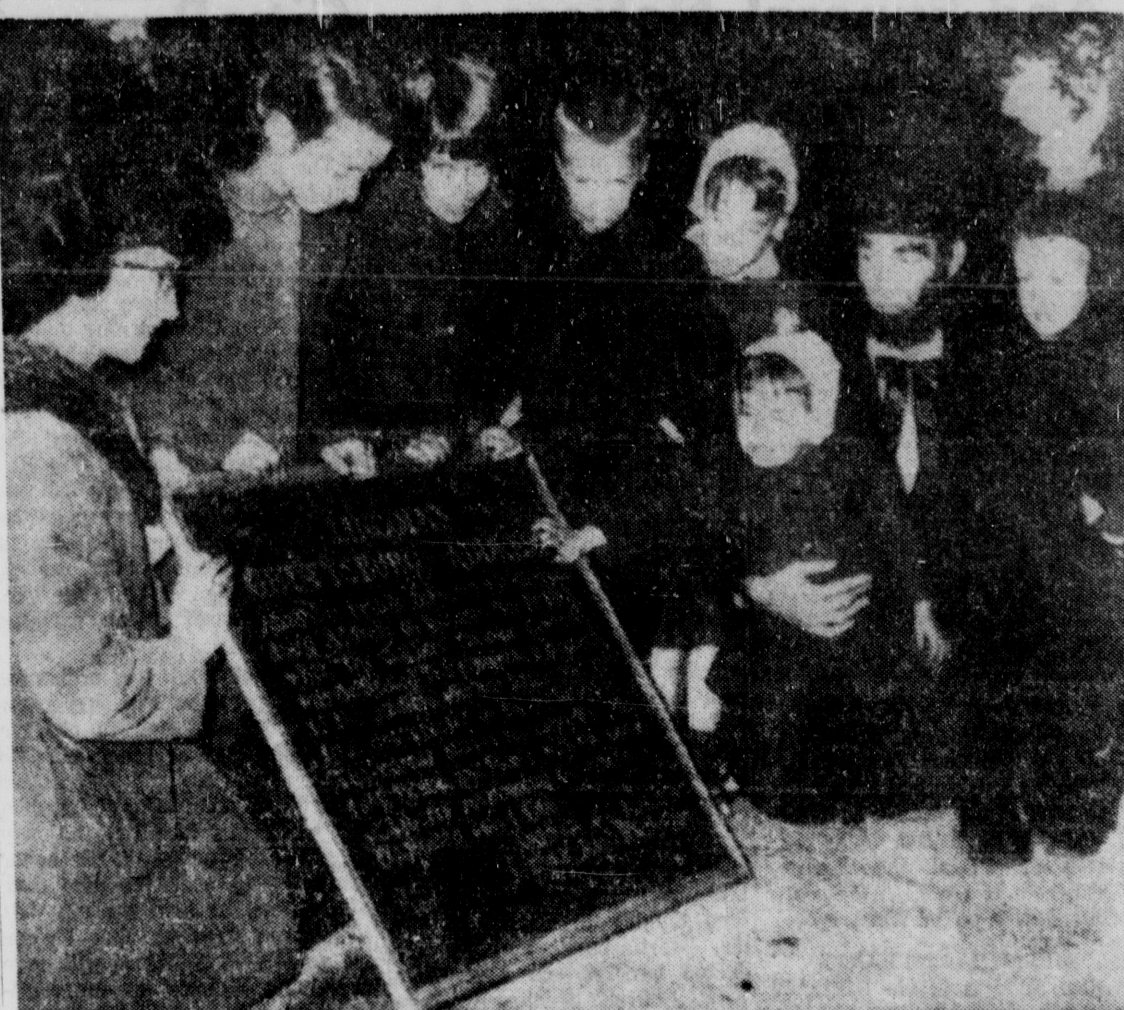

A patron needs a grand appetite to take advantage of some of the parlor's special features. Also a grand pocket-book. Samples:

—The largest parfait in the world, about two-feet tall, is $29.95. Several have been consumed—by groups.

—The "pig's trough," $49.95, is given free to a person who can eat all in three hours at one sitting. Harrison usually sells this to 12 people—and hands them 12 spoons. Also, he has given one to the cast of the "Premise," performing at a local theater. The "trough" contains 12 gallons of ice cream.

—The "Big Dipper" is ordered by one, advised for two, can serve three or four comfortably. It's $6.95 and contains several gallons of ice cream, plus practically every known kind of syrup and topping.

Alfalfa is thought to have been introduced to California from Chile in 1854.

IT HAPPENED HERE—Seven of Morris Steinour's 10 children listen to his recital of Lincoln's now historic Gettysburg Address and how the famed President delivered it from this spot on the Gettysburg, Pa., battlefield 100 years ago today. Steinour for years has portrayed Lincoln in historical pageants and presentations at the battlefield. It was on Nov. 19, 1863, that Abraham Lincoln delivered the brief but touching address which has gone down in history as an all-time masterpiece. (AP Photofax)

News Commentary

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
PARIS (UPI)—The Addis Ababa peace conference which opened last week may achieve a temporary truce in the Algerian-Moroccan border conflict, but French experts see little likelihood of it producing a lasting peace settlement.

The danger of an East-West arms race in North Africa, they believe, will remain as great as before.

Foreign ministers of 32 African nations met last week in the Ethiopian capital.

They are seeking to patch up the quarrel between the two neighboring North African states of Algeria and Morocco which erupted in October into three weeks of undeclared warfare on their Sahara Desert frontier.

At preliminary peace talks Oct. 30 in the Mali Republic capital of Bamako, King Hassan II of Morocco and Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella agreed on a cease-fire. They turned their quarrel over to the young 32-nation Organization of African Unity (OAU), set up in Addis Ababa last summer, for settlement of intra-African disputes.

The conference is the first major test of the new organization's ability to mediate between two African states without outside interference.

But the task is formidable. Before leaving for Addis Ababa, Algerian Foreign Minister Abdelaziz Bouteflika announced publicly that his country would remain "intransigent."

Assured of continuing aid in arms and men from United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser, it would be difficult for Ben Bella to permit any other stand. If he weakened, he easily might be ousted by his defense minister, Col. Houari Boumedienne, a left-leaning out-and-out Nasserite.

But it would be equally tough for King Hassan to surrender the desert outposts of Hassi Beida and Tinnjoub and the oasis of Figuig, around which the fighting raged.

At best, experts here expect the conference to agree to name a commission to look into the whole tortured border question. This would postpone a final decision. But it would bring no real solution.

The basic quarrel, in fact, runs deeper than a mere dispute over desert outposts.

King Hassan sees Ben Bella as a dangerous revolutionary seeking to overthrow his regime and make himself North Africa's number one "strong man." Ben Bella regards the king as a "reactionary" and a "tool of imperialism." He sees him as a roadblock to his plans for extending Castro-style socialism throughout North Africa.

As long as the real quarrel

Lady Marine Boss "Knows All, Tells Nothing"

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Lt. Col. Janet Bishop, who becomes America's woman Marine boss in January, is described by her current boss as "the woman who knows all and tells nothing."

As military secretary for Adm. James Russell, the Atlantic Alliance's southern European commander, Lt. Col. Bishop is indeed in a position to know all. She handles classified plans, cables and correspondence for her boss. And since that includes secret and top secret information she can tell nothing.

She first learned she was going to become director of women Marines in a classified cable from Washington several weeks ago.

"It was address to Adm. Russell," she said. "Since I handle his cables I naturally saw it first. But it was classified and I couldn't tell my mother."

Lt. Col. Bishop, 43, is a 5 foot 6 hazel-eyed brunette who likes to paint and travel.

She is an only child and lives with her mother. She has been stationed in Naples since March 1962.

A fine arts graduate of Yale before she entered the Marine Corps Reserve in 1943, Lt. Col. Bishop has an abiding love of art. When she gets a chance which is rare in view of her responsibilities, she paints in oil.

During her more than 20 years in the Marine Corps she has served at Marine Headquarters in Washington and at Quantico, Va., Parris Island, S.C., San Diego and Hawaii.

City Plans No Changes In Its Water Rates

The Water Department said yesterday that it does not plan to make any changes in water rates. The statement by Commissioner G. Ray Light was in answer to a request made originally some weeks ago by Charles Paul Roeder, Piedmont Avenue, and more recently by Edward Joyce, Fayette Street, because of the effect on rates on apartment or multi-family buildings which it was claimed are paying for water not used.

Mr. Light said the study was made by himself, City Attorney Hugh A. McMullen and City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum.

He said a study of rates in surrounding towns and cities was made and that water rates of other towns and communities beyond this immediate area and of comparable size were ascertained, which revealed "Cumberland's water rate is not in excess of any of these areas and in many instances our water rates are lower than these other areas."

"There were several other important factors which we were required to consider before we could reach our final conclusions. The City of Cumberland faces very critical and costly maintenance problems in the Water Department. The dams which supply the water must be repaired and the costs are almost prohibitive. In addition to this, the City of Cumberland is going to be required, in the immediate future, to move a considerable number of water and sewer lines in conjunction with the construction of the Cumberland Thruway Project. These costs are very high. Also, a recent study of our sanitary sewer system reveals that many of our sewers are going to require a considerable amount of maintenance and some of the sewers are going to have to be replaced by the City."

"In view of the very expensive nature of these costs which we must incur, we feel that our water rates are necessary in order for us to meet the immediate needs of the City to properly furnish the citizens of Cumberland (and some of the outlying districts) with adequate water and sewerage."

"Finally, let me say, that I would very much like to reduce the water rates in Cumberland and I certainly have no intention of attempting to create an undue burden upon the users of Cumberland water. However, I would be remiss in my duty if I failed to provide the necessary funds required to give proper water services to our citizens and operate the water Department of Cumberland on a sound financial basis."

Mr. Joyce made some comment about the cost of sewage treatment services which could not be passed on to a renter and Light said the study also found that in some places 100 per cent was charged instead of the 75 per cent of the water bill for sewage fees as here in Cumberland.

However, the commissioner added the sewage problem was not his at this time since he was concerned only with the study of water rates.

City Passes Ordinance On Illegal Water Use

The Mayor and Council enacted an ordinance yesterday providing fines for certain unauthorized water uses during the current drought period.

And city customers outside the city were put on warning that the city would take action where its requests for conservation were ignored.

The ordinance, proposed by Water Commissioner G. Ray Light, sets up fines of $25 and not more than $100 for violations of rules which prohibit use of water for washing cars, hosing grass and sidewalks and the like, except in cases of an extreme emergency.

Mr. Light said the ordinance was brought about "by just a few people" who refused to observe the honor system requested two weeks ago. He said there were a "few service stations" ignoring the order but that the majority of people had observed the honor system. In order to take care of the few, he said the city has to impose fines so that "When we go talk to them, we will have something to back up our warning."

Mr. Light said "the water supply is still safe" but going down at the rate of a foot to a foot and a half a week. If the dry weather continues, there will be trouble, he said, adding it is safer to put the ordinance into effect now. As soon as the water situation eases, the ban will be lifted, he stated.

C. Glenn Watson Jr., asked council about the effect on outside the city users and City Attorney Hugh A. McMullen said while not enforceable outside the city, it is hoped those areas will comply.

Mr. Light said "We always have that big valve we can turn down" but he said Water Department checkups outside the city have indicated compliance is good.

Mr. Light said the LaVale Sanitary Commission would enforce the rule in that area. Unless this is done, the city could turn water down to the point where there is not enough pressure to operate hoses.

Robert C. Petersen, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, commented the city could not shut off water, to which Mr. Light replied: "Oh, yes, we can. It is in the contract with LaVale, that if we have a water shortage, we can turn the water off. If I catch violators, down will go the pressure."

The ordinance is effective immediately.

"High electric bills were only one of the reasons we switched to GAS heat"

—Say Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Sexton, Irwin, Pennsylvania

MONTHLY ELECTRIC COSTS

January 1963	$81.35
February 1963	97.24
March 1963	76.32
April 1963	44.25

Total 4-month electric costs $299.16

An all-electric house seemed like a fine idea when Mr. & Mrs. Sexton moved in during November, 1962.

But then came winter, and those high electric bills. $81.35 in January, $97.24 in February, $76.32 in March, $44.25 in a comparatively warm April. And despite these costs, the Sextons' 6-room home never seemed to get really warm.

The drains in the basement froze. More insulation was added in the walls without noticeable results. According to the Sextons, during the entire winter, they were never able to bathe or shower in a reasonably warm bathroom.

For the Sextons, as for other families who have experienced it, one winter in an all-electric house was enough. They've switched to dependable, economical gas heat. The first thing they can expect is substantial savings in fuel costs. Gas heats for just a fraction of the cost of electricity.

The other bonus is comfort. Gas heats best. Before buying any home, make sure you're getting clean, comfortable, dependable gas heat.

Rescue Mission Unit Ordinance Is Amended

The Mayor and Council yesterday amended an ordinance which would have prohibited the Union Rescue Mission from locating in Cumberland and left the door open for its establishment here if a permit is approved by council.

A protest was filed, however, by representatives from the Queen City pavement area, against locating the mission in that locality.

Commissioner G. Ray Light, who was acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Earl D. Chaney, said he saw no reason why a Rescue Mission could not be established as long as the permit in the area of the eventual site did not object and council approved the permit.

The ban ordinance, held over from last week because of a 3-2 vote, was amended, at the suggestion of Commissioner William W. Keegan by adding the words "without first obtaining a permit from the Mayor and Council." Under the first ordinance, such places would have been banned outright.

Final action on the amended ordinance leaving open the possibility of a Rescue Mission resulted in a 3-1 vote, with Commissioner Lucile W. Roeder dissenting.

Commissioner Roeder took exception to the fact that she had not been informed of the amendment proposal nor had she had a chance to discuss it. If council was going to amend the ordinance, she should have been told, Mrs. Roeder said.

Later, Mrs. Roeder said she had made a plea for years that if anything is worthy of becoming law, certainly it is worthy of being read by all city officials. She said it was impossible to make a decision without having read a proposed law and "We cannot be informed if we have no chance to study it."

Commissioner Keegan said he was sorry Mrs. Roeder took the stand she did, that he had requested the amendment and it was talked about in the pre-council meeting.

Commissioner Frederick J. Hill also said there were no "back room" tactics involved and that the amendment was in the room earlier when Mrs. Roeder walked through.

The action followed a protest against locating the rescue mission on Queen City pavement in the old Hammersmith Restaurant property. Protest was made by Eugene Turano, who said he operated a business in that area and represented residents and businessmen there. Mr. Turano called the Mission a "menace" to the people and said "We had 'Burma Road' there once before and we do not want it again."

Rev. Cecil Taylor, who will direct the Rescue Mission here, said in answer to Turano that it is now proposed to have a local committee formed of people interested in the mission, businessmen and the Mayor and Council to suggest a site which would be suitable to all. Mr. Taylor said it was the intent to locate where the mission would do the most good and take into consideration the business places that are there.

Commissioner Light said he thought Mr. Taylor's idea "an excellent one" and hoped a committee meeting "would iron things out."

Also speaking yesterday during the ordinance discussion were Rev. Louis Chastain, 40 Memorial Avenue Extended; Ethel Sills of Park Place Methodist Church, and Sidney Phillips.

Mr. Chastain, a local Methodist minister, recalled the good work done in Washington, D. C., by the Rescue Mission which was located near one of the capital's outstanding churches. One supplemented the work of the other, he said.

Ethel Sills also urged establishment of the mission and said "We must think in changing terms and consider those who do not have a permanent home."

Posters Against Suicide Spurred

BEDFORD, England (AP)—A local bus company refused Sunday to display advertisements dissuading passengers from suicide.

Posters designed by the Bedford Samaritans—an organization dedicated to succoring lonely people in despair—were submitted for pasting across buses.

The stickers read: "Despair? If you are in despair and tempted to suicide and don't know where to turn for help, ring Samaritans, Bedford 2200."

The company sent the posters back, saying: "They might depress the passengers."

Oldtown PTA Plans 'Fun Night' Friday

The "fun night" of Oldtown School Parent-Teacher Association will be held Friday at 7:30 p. m., with Calvin Wolfe as chairman.

Various committee chairmen are as follows: Candy, Mrs. Betty Brown; baked goods, Mrs. Jessie Wolfe and Mrs. Wanda Miller; refreshments, Mrs. Mildred Hersch; door prizes, Mrs. Ann Dixon; zoo dip and win, Mrs. Rebecca Carder; duck pond, Mrs. Hazel Haugh; "Pitch Till You Win", Mrs. Josephine Porter; dart game, Joseph Hersch; rifle game, Raymond Duckworth; grab bags, Mrs. Louise Lewis; jewelry scramble, Mrs. Marion Kinsler; tickets, Mrs. Rebecca Zimmerman, and the Junior Class will have a "spook room."

Commissioner Keegan said he was sorry Mrs. Roeder took the stand she did, that he had requested the amendment and it was talked about in the pre-council meeting.

Commissioner Frederick J. Hill also said there were no "back room" tactics involved and that the amendment was in the room earlier when Mrs. Roeder walked through.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Finnigan's Hollywood

BY JOSEPH FINNIGAN

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—David Janssen is the most wanted man in America. Every week thousands of television fans watch him elude policemen searching for him on ABC's "The Fugitive." And the fans are rooting for David all the way, hoping the cops never lay a hand on him.

As "Fugitive," Janssen is on the lam because he's accused of bumping off his wife. Actually, a one-armed bandit did the job and Janssen, a doctor, takes the rap.

David's role is exactly the opposite of the detective part he played on "Richard Diamond" a few years back. Instead of chasing, he's running.

The handsome actor has been running for several weeks now, covering thousands of miles. "The history of a fugitive as the lead character in a show is new to television," he said. "Of course it's not new to movies or novels."

"When we started doing the show, people asked how we could sustain the character of a man forced by something out of his control to live the life of a fugitive."

"How does he live? Who does he meet? You can go on and on with this character. In any basic situation you can find a parallel for it."

David's first show explained the character. He was a doctor, wrongly sentenced to prison for murder, who escaped from his captors. In various shows he has worked at different occupations, sailmaker, prize-fighter's second, farmhand, life guard, gas station attendant, bartender.

He insists that each show not spend too much time on the chase aspect of the "Fugitive's" life.

"We try not to feature the chase because that could wear thin," he said. "The chase can't be the motivating force because it wouldn't work. You just can't dangle bait in front of an audience. If they are interested in this man's plight, his fight for survival, we'll keep our audience."

"I like this show for two reasons. One, it's a different value for me to play. I've always been associated with the fast talking guy because of 'Richard Diamond.' And secondly, we want to do the show right. You feel that the hours are not spent for naught. We have good people, wonderful directors and writers."

One thing is certain—the cops better not catch "The Fugitive." If they do, Janssen is out of a job.

Only two persons have appeared at the office of the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors to change their party affiliation, and yesterday was the last day to do so.

Board spokesmen said one other person called signified his intent to change his registration but has not, as yet, reported in.

The change must be made six months before the primary election which is scheduled May 19, 1964.

Notification was sent out two weeks ago by the Election Board to persons who had not voted during the past five years, informing them their names were to be taken from the voting lists unless they appeared at board headquarters to signify their desire to be retained on the registration rolls.

Nominees will be selected in May for the United States Senate and House of Representatives. Residents of the Sixth Congressional District will vote for an at-large congressman as well as for a district representative, spokesmen for the Election Board point out.

Potential candidates have until March 9 to file for office, while April 18 is the final registration day for those who wish to vote for the man of their choice.

For persons who wish to cast absentee ballots, their applications must be returned to the Election Board by April 29. The last day to apply for military absentee ballot is May 9, election officials report.

Following the May 19 primary, the registration books will be opened on May 29 and remain open until September 22.

The general election is scheduled next November 3.

County United Fund Is Only $24,991 From Goal

The seventh County United Fund campaign appeared headed for certain victory as another official audit of campaign results showed contributions totaling $369,541.63.

This figure represents 93.7 per cent of the 1963 goal of $394,533. An amount of only $24,991.37 is needed to meet the 1963 mark.

Walter E. Dyck, campaign general chairman, once again stressed that "this 1963 campaign of good for our youth and less-fortunate fellow citizens is on the highway to success, and the distance is getting shorter every day."

Mr. Dyck remarked, "Once again the 28 health, social service and character-building agencies of County United Fund appear to be assured of their approved United Fund budgets. In all the previous six years of the County United Fund, these agencies have received their full approved budgets." Mr. Dyck said, "proving the effectiveness and economy of the United Way."

Boosting the campaign total to its present amount were sizeable collective gifts in all divisions—Big Seven Employees, Cumberland Business Division, Cumberland Classified Division, Cumberland Golden Gifts Division and the County Areas Division.

A gift total of almost $25,000 in just one week pushed the campaign mark to its 93.7 per cent level.

Big Seven employees are just shy of their goal with gifts totaling $152,058, or 98.7 per cent of their $154,000 mark.

Division co-chairmen James W. Stein and John C. Foster indicated that once again the Big Seven Employees Division is a cinch to meet its goal. They praised the giving record on the "payroll giving plan" of employees in the area's larger industries.

Their optimism was echoed by Robert Hunter Jr. and J. Carson Dowell, Golden Gifts co-chairmen, whose division is at 98.2 per cent of its $125,000 goal. Golden Gifters have gifts totaling $122,747.23 and need only a little more than $2,000 to report success.

Employees in the area's lighter industries, business concerns, government agencies, and professional offices have boosted the Classified Division total to 77.0

per cent of their goal with a total gift of $42,371.18. Their goal is $55,000 and co-chairmen Charles A. Wilt and W. Fred Mowen indicated there is more to come.

The Cumberland Business Division climbed to 72.0 per cent of its goal under the leadership of Dr. Robert Zimmer and Frederick J. Hill with a total gift of $7,203.77. The Business goal is $10,000.

Sparked by the giving of the Frostburg area, several divisions in Keyser, the Tri-Towns and East County areas, the County Division has reached 87.7 per cent of its $51,515 goal.

Frostburg, under the general chairmanship of Joseph H. Kruson and B. Bowen Hardesty, became the first area to pass its goal in competition for the Lewis J. Ort Area Achievement Award Trophy. The total Frostburg campaign passed its $14,090 goal with a collective gift of $14,867, or 105.5 per cent of the goal. Frostburg is in position to win the trophy, copped two times by Cumberland.

Route 40 Inn Is Offered To Area Council

The Council of the Alleghenies has been offered the Casselman Tavern, one of the oldest inns on U. S. 40, for its headquarters, according to Dr. B. Floyd Flickinger, director of the council's cultural planning and programs.

Dr. Flickinger said that the council, formed two years ago to preserve the natural beauty and rich cultural heritage of the highlands, needs the structure in Grantsville. "It would be a shame not to use it for historical purposes," he added.

The council is composed of citizens who wish to promote the welfare of the economically stricken Allegheny Tableland.

Preservation plans include restorations, establishment of museums and pioneer villages, initiation of seminars and promotion of study commissions.

The Casselman Hotel, which has served continuously as an inn since 1824, is located near the Mason-Dixon Line. Historians say that during the Civil War it was occupied some nights by Union soldiers and some nights by Confederates.

Pa. Brothers To Wed Sisters In This County

Probe Of Shooting Accident Continues

The Detective Bureau checked out several promising leads yesterday in connection with the wounding of a 11-year-old local boy Sunday, according to Detective Capt. James E. Van.

He said the stray bullet which struck Clyde Layton Jr., of 7 Clement Street, in the chest probably came from someone shooting at mark.

The lad was reported in satisfactory condition last night in Memorial Hospital.

Louis Windemuth, Mrs. Roy Yutzy and Mrs. Suter Kegg, was in charge of games and refreshments.

Other mothers attending were Mrs. George R. Hughes Jr., Mrs. James Robinson and Mrs. Ruth Weicht.

Zoning is one of the processes used for achieving county planning objectives, according to Mr. Tarrant, who pointed out that the state laws of Maryland specify that zoning must be designed:

Explains Purpose
To lessen congestion in the streets; secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; promote health and the general welfare; provide adequate light and air; prevent the overcrowding of land; avoid undue concentration of population; and to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, and other public requirements.

Others at the meeting last night included Carl O. Belt, commission member; Andrew McMinimee, county planner, and Vernon Loar, president of the Allegheny County Farm Bureau.

Similar meetings have been scheduled for Cresaptown School this evening at 7:30; Mt. Savage High School, 7:30 p. m. tomorrow and Valley High School, Lonaconing, 7:30 p. m. on Thursday.

ed in the Mountain State. Brown said his campaign finances would be independent of any commitments. He has not officially named any persons to his campaign organization.

Brown rates former Gov. Cecil H. Underwood as "the most formidable" potential GOP gubernatorial candidate because of his experience and friendship "in every county. Anyone who feels he would not be is just fooling himself," he said.

But Brown didn't rule out the "aggressive campaigning" ability of Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., R-W. Va., should he seek the GOP nod. But he said Moore's efforts had been confined mainly to the First District.

Father Newsman

In response to other questions by seven newsmen present, Brown — a son of the late Jefferson Slidwell Brown, a member of the West Virginia Journalism Hall of Fame—said:

— He believes the "major" election issues will be "taxation and roads, welfare, and employment." The major problems facing his party are "lack of harmony" and "dissatisfaction" over handling of patronage.

— There "possibly" will be other Democratic candidates, perhaps former State Atty. Gen. John Fox, House Speaker Julius Singleton, Atty. Gen. Donald Robertson and former State Tax Commissioner Milton Ferguson. He described all as "good candidates...a credit to the party."

— He has not discussed with any of them a possible "coalition" against Smith.

Honor Society Chapter Installed

Hyndman Post Commended By VFW Leader

Attains Highest District Rating

HYNDMAN, Pa. — Oscar Jordan Post 7375, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was commended at a recent meeting by R. E. Flickinger, of McAllisterville, commander of the 17th Pennsylvania District.

The district commander said the local post has the highest percentage of paid-up members in the district, rates high in community service and also on official inspections.

Donald M. Harclerode, post commander, reported annual donations had been made to the VFW Scotland Home for Orphans, the National VFW Home and to the Christmas Seal sale.

Harry T. Ritchey, chairman, reported the community Halloween parade was the largest ever sponsored by the post. Prizes awarded included $10 to Boy Scout Explorer Post 60, for its float on the theme "Salute to Service Organizations," and $7 to the Young Peoples Class of Lybarger Lutheran Church, for its float on the theme, "In God We Trust." Ritchey said approximately 400 costumed marchers participated in the parade.

Reports were presented by Kenneth J. Minnick, on membership, and by Donald E. Leydig, chairman of the building committee.

Leydig stated that improvements to the post home will include a meeting room that is expected to be completed in time for the next meeting.

Two Pledged In Sorority Ceremony

KEYSER — A pledge ceremony for two new members featured a recent meeting of Iota Phi Chapter, Tau Phi Lambda Sorority, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, at the C&A Gas Company's office.

Miss Joyce Keplinger took the speaking part and Mrs. Maureen Marsh was warden for the ceremony presented for the pledges, Mrs. Sandra Wildman and Mrs. Barbara Payne.

After the ceremony, Mrs. Marsh conducted her first meeting as the newly-elected president.

It was noted to enter a float in the local Christmas parade, and a committee was appointed with Miss Sharon Harman as chairman. All members of the organization are to assist with preparation of the float. The members also decided to make a donation to the Jaycees fund for Christmas decorations.

The organization decided to prepare a box of Christmas gifts for the Korean orphan sponsored by the chapter. Gifts are to be given to Mrs. Pat Wenzel at the local telephone business office or at her home, 75 Allegany Street, no later than Tuesday. They should be either used clothing or discarded usable toys for a small four-year-old girl.

The ways and means committee distributed Christmas candy which will be sold by members.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Miss Betsy Anderson and Mrs. Jean Harman. The next meeting is scheduled for November 27 at the Farmers and Merchants Bank.

Progress Seen On Detention Home In Keyser

Architect Engaged To Prepare Plans

KEYSER — Additional progress has been noted and it appears that a juvenile detention home for Mineral County may soon become a reality.

Prosecuting Attorney C. Reeves Taylor said Mineral County Court has signed a contract with an architect to draw up plans for the proposed building and submit them to federal agencies for approval.

Judge David E. Cuppett Jr., who has been promoting the idea for two years, has expressed an even keener interest in the program since recent action of the state legislature permits fines from Justice of the Peace courts to be used for repairs and maintenance of county jails and juvenile detention homes.

The addition to the Court House would be located at the rear of the building between the Court House and the jail. There would be accommodations for both boys and girls, as well as office space and living quarters for a full-time juvenile officer.

At a previous conference the court engaged Robert J. Bennett, Morgantown architect, to draw up plans for the building. Bennett was the architect for the library at Potomac State College and the new dormitory for women, Friend Hall, which was dedicated yesterday. He also designed the new Hampshire High School located east of Romney.

Friendly Group Has Social Session

FROSTBURG — The "Friendly Group" of Frostburg met recently at the home of Mrs. Hazel Miller, Charles Street. The business session was in charge of Mrs. Ruth Davis.

Each member told about something for which she was thankful. Mrs. Jennie Thomas was awarded the gift of the evening.

The next meeting will be a dinner served at the Continental Motel Dining Room December 3 at 6 p. m. A Christmas party with the exchanging of gifts will feature the program.

Councilors To Meet

FROSTBURG—The Past Councilors Club of the Daughters of America will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Edna E. Charles Street. Fern Thomas will preside.

John Cupler Will Speak To AAUW

FROSTBURG—John A. Cupler, II, president and owner of the National Jet Company, La Vale will speak at the general meeting of the Frostburg-Georges Creek Branch of the AAUW today at 7:30 p. m. in Thomas G. Pullen School.

An inventor well-known in the industrial world, Mr. Cupler, holds several patents relating to micro-drill making, micro-drilling equipment, and synthetic filament spinnerettes. His company is a leader in the production of these items, and is presently the only company in the world capable of making and using drills with a diameter of one-tenth-thousandths of an inch.

These tiny drills are used for such diverse purposes as for drilling the Vanguard rocket nozzle, diesel motors which power B & O locomotives, spinnerettes for the extrusion of Celanese synthetic fibers, and in highly specialized hypodermic injections in certain kinds of surgery. Because of the high interest in this local industry, husbands, and friends are welcome to attend the meeting. Hostesses include Mrs. John Kneisley, chairman, Mrs. Catherine McGiboney, Mrs. Virgil Atkinson, Mrs. Robert Bittner, Mrs. Rachel Dunn and Miss Grace Filer.

Frostburg Elks Plan Memorial Service Dec. 1

FROSTBURG — Howard Duckworth will be initiated into Frostburg Lodge 470, BPO Elks today at 7:30 p. m. A buffet dinner will be served according to B. Wayne Myers, exalted ruler.

Other activities planned by the group are on November 27, the annual kick-off dance beginning at 10 p. m. at the Elks Home. The coaches of La Salle and Beall High Schools Football teams will be entertained at this time.

On December 1, the Elks will hold their annual memorial service for deceased members beginning at 8:30 p. m. The service is open to the public. U. B. F. Edwards, chairman of the memorial committee announces that five members of the lodge who died since the last service will be eulogized. They are Earl K. Hess, John G. Buckley, Richard Holben, Leo McNeal and Benjamin Gerston.

Rev. Harold B. Wright, pastor of First Methodist Church will be guest speaker. Eulogist will be W. Robert Delaney, past exalted ruler.

The Madrigal Singers of Frostburg State College under the direction of Charles Sager and accompanied by Rosemarie Weber will be featured.

The memorial ritual service and membership tribute will be led by officers of the lodge with B. Wayne Myers in charge. Members serving on the committee with Mr. Edwards are B. Wayne Myers, Paul Myers and Cecil Smith.

It is emphasized that this service is open to the public and is held the first Sunday of December each year.

Miners Hospital Lists Births

FROSTBURG — Mr. and Mrs. Michael Patton, RD 2, Frostburg, a daughter Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. John McMahon, Midland, a son Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wampler, RD 1, Frostburg, a daughter Saturday.

Frostburg Area First To Pass CUF Quota

Takes Ort Award From Cumberland

FROSTBURG — With two of the six givers' divisions surpassing their individual targets, the Frostburg area became the first area in the seventh County United Fund campaign to report its goal exceeded.

Gifts totaling $14,867 were counted by CUF's team of auditors Saturday to put the Frostburg area at 105.5 per cent of its goal. Indications were that the campaign in that area was not complete and more gifts were to come.

Under the area co-chairmanship of Joseph H. Kruson and R. Bowen Hardesty, the two divisions which surpassed their goals were the Classified Division for employees groups and the Golden Gifts Division.

Using the payroll giving plan, Classified Division givers have contributed a total of $5,578, more than $800 over their goal. Golden Gifts recorded 107.6 per cent of their goal with a collective gift of $8,073, more than $500 over their mark.

Other division reports showed that the Frostburg Business Division is at 59.4 per cent of its goal with $594; Frostburg Community is at 72 per cent of its target with $436.50, and the Mt. Savage community has reached 63 per cent of its mark with $125.

Division chairmen in the Frostburg area campaign are Frederick Morton, Golden Gifts; Eugene W. McCauley, Classified Division; R. Frank Lewis, Business Division; John L. Dunkle, Frostburg community, and John R. Stevens, Mt. Savage community.

Becoming the first area to pass its 1963 goal, Frostburg is in line for winning the Lewis J. Ort achievement award trophy instituted three years ago and won in both previous campaigns by Cumberland.

Women's Club Cancels Annual Holiday Dance

LONACONING — The annual Christmas dinner-dance of the Lonaconing Women's Club will not be held this year, it was announced at a recent meeting. Mrs. Wanda Gardner, chairman, stated that the club instead will formulate plans for a Valentine dinner-dance.

Mrs. Naomi Grove, president, presided at the meeting at which Miss Mary Wise, county demonstrations agent, presented a demonstration on "Good Design for a Price."

Mrs. June Wattenschmidt will be program chairman for December. She and her committee will demonstrate the making of Christmas decorations.

A card of thanks was read from the Junior 4-H Club for a donation used for transportation to the county Achievement Night program.

It was announced that there will not be a book club this year, but if enough are interested one will be started at a later date.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wanda Gardner, chairman, Mrs. Ellen Lee Cordial, Mrs. Margie Duckworth, Mrs. June Wattenschmidt, Mrs. Ella Evans, Mrs. Margaret Evans and Mrs. Ann Miller.

Westernport PTA Adopts Projects

WESTERNPORT — Glenn Hanna of Frostburg, a visiting teacher for the Board of Education, was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Westernport Parent-Teacher Association. Robert Powers, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Delbert Grove, president, presided. Mrs. Joseph Sarfino reported the membership at 250. There was discussion concerning the projects proposed by the ways and means committee, headed by Mrs. Hollie Fazzenbaker, which included a spring festival, buffet supper and talent show. The plans were approved, but no dates set.

The group decided to purchase room-darkening window shades for the sunny side of the school building.

During the period of classroom visitation, the teachers explained the report cards.

Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

Cub Pack 46 Seeks Members

FROSTBURG — Cubmaster Murphy newly appointed Cubmaster of Pack 46, Cub Scouts, sponsored by the Hill Street School PTA, has announced that the final meeting before the registration deadline will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the school auditorium. He has urged that all parents who desire their boys, ages 8 through 10, to become members for the new year be present with their sons.

Winter In Florida

PIEDMONT—Mrs. George G. Dixon, Ashfield Street, left for Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to spend the winter. She was accompanied to Washington by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Dixon.

Kindergarten Association To First Grade Outlined At Bishop Murray School

LONACONING — An insight into the operation and importance of a kindergarten and its relationship to a First Grade, was kindered one evening last week, when 33 parents and friends of the Bishop Murray Kindergarten of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, here, heard a panel discussion at the new school.

Panel members were Miss Alice McCormick, principal of Central Elementary School, and the two First Grade teachers there, Miss Mary Meyers and Mrs. Betty Long. Mrs. Thelma Green, teacher of the Bishop Murray Kindergarten, then spoke about her work with the children.

The panel members made their presentation in three sections. Miss McCormick spoke about the parents' responsibility in preparing a child for Kindergarten "from birth on up" she said. She stressed that a child should not be pushed to learn facts the way he or she will be taught when in school, but that trips to interesting places like a Shopping Center will prove fascinating to a preschool child and be an excellent learning experience.

Learning Process

Mrs. Long spoke about what makes a good kindergarten and why it is good to have one before a child enters the First Grade. She emphasized that the five-year-old learning process is different from the learning in the First Grade, and that a parent should understand that kindergartners are not an early-bird jump into First Grade work, but constructively helps the child to adjust to working and playing and learning in a group.

Miss Meyers described what a First Grade teacher expects of a child — that she can be assured he will have learned in a good kindergarten. Some of these expectations are that a child will be physically prepared by being clean, neat, and in good health, that the child will be socially prepared by having become used to being away from home and parents for a large part of the day all week, that the child knows how to apply himself in work projects and be able to share tools and materials with others, that the child be able to listen to and follow directions.

Miss Meyers also emphasized that at this age learning should never be forced, but that the parent should understand that the five-year-old must actually see and touch and work with something in order to understand it, "there is no problem with enthusiasm and interest," she said, which brought laughter from the parents. "and the parent should try to encourage the child to learn for himself rather than force instruction upon him" was her helpful comment.

Schedule Outlined

Finally Mrs. Green presented the daily time schedule of activities which she felt would be the best way for the parents to see how Kindergarten scientifically provides learning experiences for the child in many different areas: learning to use rhythm instruments in time with others encourages co-operation. Learning to listen to stories and to follow directions encourages discipline. Discussing a social studies theme like "Getting Ready for Winter" part of each day for several days widens the child's thinking about his world. Sharing handwork materials and tools and records helps develop co-operation and good citizenship. Motion games develop co-ordination and rhythm.

Mrs. Green described the development there is in a year's time of a child listening to directions, listening to each other, skill in clearly expressing thoughts and ideas, and in getting used to the organization of a day's schedule. "Learning is fun" she said.

Board Introduced
The headmaster of the school, Rev. David K. Johnston noted that this third year of operation is an excellent one, and he also introduced.

Frostburg CWO Meets Tonight

FROSTBURG — The Catholic Women's Organization of St. Michael's Church will meet today at 8:30 p. m. in the Knights of Columbus home.

A reception of new members into the Sodality of St. Michael's Church will take place on Sunday, December 1, at the evening service. Recent converts, college students, C.C.D. members, last year's graduates of the parish school — all are asked to present their names for acceptance by calling Mrs. Laura Greco, OV 9-5437 or Mrs. Dolores Jenkins, OV 9-9513 prior to December 1st.

The fund collection for the fuel will be taken up at all Masses next Sunday.

A public social for the benefit of St. Michael's Church will be held Friday at 8 p. m. in the parish hall.

The annual clothing collection for the needy overseas will be held in the parish beginning Sunday, November 24.

BHS Arranges Annual Play Tournament

Upper Classmen Plan Shows Friday

FROSTBURG—The annual play tournament for the sophomore, junior and senior classes at Beall High School will be held Friday at 8 p. m., according to Mrs. Ruth Rephann, faculty advisor.

Each class will present a one-act play. Judges will choose the winning play as well as "best actress" and "best actor."

The senior play will be "The Neighbors." Directing are Carolyn Dolly and Susan Sleeman. Cast members include Edith Hanson, Nellie Brain, Jessie Cummings, Jay Allen, Norma Britcher, Paulette Layman, Harry Fuller and Roma Skidmore. Carol Ryan and Jo Ann Condry will be prompters.

"Murders of Miriam" is the junior entry, with Gail Brode and Patricia Turner as student directors. The cast includes James Eberly, Rose Wade, Julia Edmunds, William Linn, Lou Anne McCullough and Linda Rase. Prompters are Ivah Shope and Susan Logue.

Yvonne Montana and Patricia Scarpelli will direct the sophomore entry. Included in the cast are Thomas Shockey, Robert Blair, Carolyn Drew, David Fakin, Linda Coakley and Diana Jones. Sandra Gross and Jeanly Lewis will be prompters.

Committee chairmen, all members of the Dramatics Club, include Joseph Livingston, staging and lighting; LaNita Stott and Earlene Geary, make-up; Judith Sleeman and Linda Via, tickets; Susan Loar, publicity; Karen Thorn, properties; Paulette Layman, costumes, and Roma Skidmore, dressing room.

Mrs. Lucille Clise Hurt In Mishap

MIDLAND—Mrs. Lucille Clise, daughter of Mrs. Lola Stevenson, is recuperating in St. Vincent's Hospital in Erie, Pa., where she was admitted with injuries sustained in a one-car accident, last week near McKean, Pa., where she resides.

Mrs. Clise was driving alone when the car skidded on the wet highway and hit a tree. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson, of Midland, visited her at the hospital.

BHS Boosters Meet Tonight

FROSTBURG—The Beall High Band Boosters Club will meet today at 8 p. m. in the band room of the schools with Mrs. Clara Mae Vogtman, in charge. The Thanksgiving Day program will be discussed.

Pitt Jumps To 5th In AP Poll, Texas Leads 6th Straight Week

Longhorns Play Final Contest Thanksgiving

Seek 10th Straight Over Aggies; Navy Holds Second Place

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Texas Longhorns, needing only a victory over Texas A&M Thanksgiving Day for their first unbeaten and untied season in 43 years, extended their reign to six straight weeks as the nation's No. 1 college football team Monday.

The nation's only major all-winning eleven easily retained its top spot in the Associated Press poll.

Navy Holds Second

Coach Darrell Royal's Cotton Bowl-bound Longhorns were rated first by all but six of the 51 sports writers and broadcasters in this week's poll and received 503 points to 423 for second-ranked Navy. The Midshipmen grabbed all the first place votes that Texas didn't get. They outscored Duke in a wild game Saturday 38-25.

Texas won its ninth straight game, defeating Texas Christian 17-0 last Saturday.

Not since 1920, when it won all nine games, has a Texas U. team ever enjoyed an unbeaten and untied season. The 1923 squad was undefeated but was tied 7-7 by Baylor. Last year's eleven also went through the regular season without a loss but was deadlocked by Rice 14-14.

Pitt Jumps To Fifth

There were only two changes in the top ten rankings from last week's list. Pittsburgh, impressive in a 28-0 rout of Army Saturday, climbed a notch to fifth place dropping Oklahoma to sixth. The Sooners defeated Missouri 13-3.

Mississippi, which trounced Tennessee 20-0 held third place with 359 points. Michigan State, a 12-7 victor over Notre Dame, retained fourth place by a slight margin over Pitt, 305 points to 287.

Behind Oklahoma's 254 points came seventh-place Alabama 222, Illinois 180, Auburn 117 and Nebraska 59. Alabama whipped Georgia Tech 27-11. Illinois took the measure of Wisconsin 17-7. Auburn blanked Georgia 14-0 and Nebraska took a squeaker from Oklahoma State 20-16.

The top ten teams in first place votes in parentheses, season records and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Texas (43)	9 0 0	503
2. Navy (6)	1 0 0	423
3. Mississippi (7)	1 0 0	359
4. Michigan State (4)	1 1 0	305
5. Pittsburgh (2)	1 0 0	287
6. Oklahoma (20)	7 1 0	254
7. Alabama (9)	7 1 0	222
8. Illinois (1)	6 1 0	180
9. Auburn (1)	7 1 0	117
10. Nebraska (1)	8 1 0	59

Orange, Gator Bowl Scouts Eye Pitt's Panthers

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pitt Panthers are well up in their geography, having been to West Virginia, Maryland, California and Indiana this season. But they don't mean to be stay-at-homes New Year's Day.

Scouts from the Orange and Gator Bowl have been keeping an eye on the Panthers who have seven victories against one defeat.

The Panthers have their best football team in 25 years and they are amenable to a bowl bid. If they can defeat Penn State this Saturday and trip up Miami at Florida the following week, they will be objects of more post-season bowl representatives.

Pointing up the Panther strength is their success against some of the top teams of the nation. They vanquished Army and Syracuse and were beaten only by Navy, Washington, an early season conquest, also commands respect.

Ralston, Riessen Win, Scott Loses In Aussie Tennis

ADELAIDE, Australia (UPI) — United States Davis Cuppers Dennis Ralston and Marty Riessen won through the first round of the South Australia tennis championships Monday without too much trouble but teenage Eugene Scott was eliminated at the tournament's first hurdle.

Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., was on court only an hour after arriving here from Sydney and scored an easy 6-0, 6-0 victory over Aussie junior player Allan Stone.

Riessen, Hinsdale, Ill., was much too strong at the net for Bob Brien of New South Wales and triumphed 9-7, 6-3 after a little early difficulty.

But Scott of St. James, N.Y., the third U.S. Davis Cup man in the tournament, lacked the pace necessary to keep up with Aussie left-hander Owen Davidson and was soundly trounced 6-1, 6-4.

Texas Starts Immediate Athletic Integration

First Southwest Conference School To Take Action

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Darrell Royal, Texas athletic director and coach, announced Monday complete and immediate athletic integration at the state's largest university.

This makes Texas the first school in the eight-member Southwest Conference to take this action.

"The Athletic Council met with the administration this morning and we decided that any (Negro) student who meets academic and athletic requirements is eligible to try out for any sport as of this moment."

"We will recruit those Negroes that fit into our program," Royal said.

This means that a Negro could compete in basketball this season if he is already enrolled in the university. Texas now has about 300 Negroes and 150 to 200 are male students.

The first recruiting of Negro athletes, Royal said, would be for football. This would have to wait until the athlete has played his final high school football game. He did not mention any particular prospects, but said his staff had "a pretty good line on recruiting."

Other teams in the conference, all with segregated athletic programs, include Texas A&M, Rice, SMU, TCU, Texas Tech, Baylor and Arkansas.

James T. Gaffney Renamed Head Of Grid Officials

James T. Gaffney, of Cumberland, was reelected president of the Potomac Valley Football Officials Association and the organization's tenth annual dinner last night at the Homestead Hotel Inn, Burlington, W. Va.

James M. Roby, Cumberland, was elected vice president and John R. Shelton, Keyser, was reelected secretary-treasurer.

Hubert J. Feeney and Charles "Chick" Snider, Cumberland were named to the executive board.

Seventy officials, coaches and representatives of the press and radio attended the affair.

SPORT SLANTS

Clemson Gets Wade Shooting Near Homes
Two Share Honors Gimmicks Condemned

By C. V. BURNS

DON WADE, Romney High School's classy senior quarterback, who fired 17 touchdown passes this year, has received a full four-year grant-in-aid athletic scholarship at Clemson (S.C.) College.

Don has lettered in football for three seasons.

This season he threw 85 passes and completed 45 for a gain of 1,169 yards.

Wade's home in Romney is across from the high school.

WHEN the Potomac Valley Conference holds its fall meeting next week at Burlington, W. Va., two schools—Romney and Beall—will grab off the top team awards. Beall's track and field and baseball teams, coached by Gerard "Jerry" Calhoun and "Moose" Arnone, respectively, and Romney High's football and cross country teams, tutored by Roger Parker and Robert Sirk, copped the titles in the four spring and fall sports this year.

WHEN Romney High School fades out of the picture next year in favor of Hampshire High School there is one record left by the Pioneers that will be hard to beat and that's the undefeated basketball team of 1959-60 which copped the state Class AA title and wound up with a 27-0 mark.

THE MAJOR leagues are going to start the 1964 season a week later, April 14, and extend the long summer to a closing date of October 4 with the World Series starting October 7, which would carry the series as far along as October 15.

At this stage in football, the pros are playing the fifth week on their regular schedule.

In the early days pro football had to adjust its schedule because the teams had to play in the baseball parks. Today only four parks owned by baseball clubs are used by the pros with the others being owned by municipalities or private interests.

NEW DORP High School of Staten Island, coached by Salvatore "Sal" Somma, a native of Ridgeley, W. Va., has been getting a big play in New York papers following a five-game winning streak after losing the season opener.

The Staten Islanders clobbered the Peglegs of Stuyvesant High in their last outing, 42-8, at Randall's Island Stadium.

THREE Morgantown (W. Va.) high school football teams scored only one victory this season which is probably an all-time low for the university city.

St. Francis High's Trojans with 1-8, University High 0-7-1 and Morgantown High 0-7-2.

SINCE the upland game season opened last weekend, most of the violations reported were charged against nimrods for hunting too close to dwellings, according to Joseph A. Minke.

The law forbids shooting within 100 yards of an occupied dwelling and warnings have been issued to hunters.

Another section of the law which must be observed at all times while hunting provides that hunters must display their license tags properly on their backs.

It seems that some hunters cannot resist shooting at deer during the upland season and reports are that several crippled whitetails have been seen in the woods. This is one violation every hunter should feel obliged to report to a game warden.

Here is an item directed at motorists.

If you accidentally kill a deer on the highway do not dispose of it until it has been checked by a game warden or State Police officer. The motorist may keep the deer but only after it has been checked and tagged.

Minke states that a few inquiries have been received from hunters interested in obtaining sneak boat licenses for duck hunters along the Potomac River. They can be obtained from the Clerk of Court's office for a fee of $5. The boat can be used by any number of hunters.

The regional warden, however, advises that at the present time there is not sufficient water in the Potomac for good floating.

THE MORNING Telegraph and Racing Form publication, which rarely criticize race track operations or their operators, lashed out with a strong editorial condemning the Twin Double last week in the same editions announcing the opening of Pimlico.

Calling attention to the Thoroughbred Racing Association's convention next month, the editorial advised:

"The most important item on the agenda should be the elimination of the various gimmicks that are making a mockery of the sport."

"The TRA must decide whether we are to promote racing as a sport or whether racing is to be used primarily to promote avarice."

Saturday Games To Determine Rose Bowl Representatives

Texas Gets Cotton Bowl Berth; Navy May Be Opponent

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Games at Seattle, Los Angeles and East Lansing, Mich. Saturday will determine the Rose Bowl representatives, but sponsors of the other major bowls probably will wait a week longer to decide their line-ups.

Promoters of the Cotton, Sugar and Orange Bowls said Monday they likely will put off a decision until after the college football games of Nov. 30. The various smaller bowls must wait until the big ones are filled before they can do any plucking.

Only one bowl spot is definitely fixed. Texas, the nation's only unbeaten-untied major power and No. 1 ranked, has clinched a third straight appearance in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas where efforts probably will be made to land Navy, ranked No. 2, for the year's "dream game."

Expresses Preference
In the only other major development over the week-end, Mississippi's Johnny Vaught expressed preference to play in the Orange Bowl at Miami over the Sugar or Cotton Bowls.

As potential Southeastern Conference champion, unbeaten but once-tied Mississippi had been figured on as a Sugar Bowl certainty since it is traditional for the Southeastern winner to play at New Orleans.

Orange Bowl officials, however, said Mississippi was just one of several teams being considered. Miami normally likes to land an Eastern opponent for the Big Eight Conference champion, which means Navy and Pittsburgh top the list of desired teams.

Here's the bowl situation:
ROSE BOWL — Washington, 3-1 in the Big Six, has the edge over Southern California and UCLA, each 2-1, if it can beat Washington State in the final game Saturday at Seattle.

slipup by the Huskies would throw the nod toward the Southern Cal-UCLA winner at Los Angeles. The opponent will be the winner of the Big Ten title game between fourth-ranked Michigan State and No. 8 Illinois at East Lansing, Mich.

Navy Tops List

COTTON BOWL — Top-ranked Texas, 9-0, is the host team, with Navy, 8-1, beaten only by Southern Methodist, topping the list of outside candidates. Felix McKnight, bowl chairman, announced that he probably would not make a decision until after the Army-Navy game Nov. 30. Other teams in the running are Pittsburgh, Auburn, Alabama, Mississippi and Penn State.

SUGAR BOWL — Mississippi, 7-0-1, should have first pick if it can get by Mississippi State in their traditional game Nov. 30. If Ole Miss is tapped by the Orange Bowl, Alabama and Auburn, each 7-1, would be favored for the host spot. Marshall David, president of the Sugar Bowl said, "We are considering all the leading teams." Pittsburgh is reported to have the inside track.

ORANGE BOWL — One place is committed to the Big Eight champion, to be decided by the game between sixth-ranked Oklahoma, 7-1, and 10th-ranked Nebraska, 8-1, at Lincoln, Neb., Saturday. The other berth is wide open, with Navy, Pitt and Mississippi heading the list. Positions of Pitt and Alabama are weakened by the fact they play games in Miami Nov. 30 (Pitt vs. Miami) and Dec. 7 (Alabama vs. Miami).

Loser Considered
The loser of the Big Eight title game at Lincoln — Oklahoma or Nebraska — likely will land in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston. The Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, which has been growing in stature, will have a shot at leading teams, such as Alabama, Auburn, Pitt, Penn State and Syracuse.

Other bowl prospects are Mississippi State, the team that broke Auburn's winning string; Memphis State, which tied Mississippi; North Carolina and North Carolina State, each with only two defeats.

Police Arrest Man In DeJohn Shooting Case

Two Others Sought In Barroom Brawl

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Police arrested one man Monday and sought two others in the shooting of Mike DeJohn, a former ranking heavyweight fighter, in a brawl outside a barroom.

Jose Sanz, 26, was charged with aggravated assault.

DeJohn was treated at a hospital and sent home after suffering flesh wounds in both legs in a fight in a parking lot outside the 820 bar in the southwest section of Miami.

Police said the 32-year-old DeJohn was preparing to leave the bar at 4:20 a.m. Sunday when another patron engaged him in an argument.

DeJohn's manager, Lenny McMillen, said this man and two others followed the fighter outside. DeJohn knocked one of the men down and another drew a pistol and shot him in each leg.

Police said the man with the gun then forced the other bar patrons, who had flocked outside to watch the fight, to go back inside while the trio escaped.

Senior Men's Church League Opens Nov. 27

The Senior Men's Church Basketball League is scheduled to begin its season at the Cumberland Central YMCA on Wednesday, November 27th, according to Lynn Patchin, Physical Director of the local "Y". In an effort to organize a compatible program in basketball for men, the league will be composed of teams representing those interested church groups, from where competition may be more equalized than it has in the past few years.

The objective of this program is to provide an activity where all participants would get a chance to compete with other persons of near equal strengths. The "Y" has accommodations for at least seven teams this year, and each team must have bonifide church members on its roster. There should be no need to bring in "ringers" just to win, for the efforts of this league should be extended toward the success of the over-all program, rather than the few.

Most of the games will be played on Wednesday nights. As of now, three such teams have indicated an interest in this year's league; but, there are still those openings.

News-Post Says Bauer Will Get Job As Manager

Hank And MacPhail Refuse To Comment

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles will name coach Hank Bauer as manager with the next 24 hours, the Baltimore News-Post reported Monday.

When asked about the report, General Manager Lee MacPhail said: "When we do have a manager, we will announce it."

Bauer coached third base for the American League baseball club under Manager Billy Hitchcock, who was dismissed at the end of the season.

The News-Post story said Bauer has been the leading candidate for the manager's job since Eddie Stanky, St. Louis Cardinal farm director, turned thumbs down on the job 12 days ago.

The newspaper quoted Bauer as saying, by telephone from Kansas City: "Anything like that has to come from the front office."

"I haven't seen Lee, but I've talked to him last Friday. There's just nothing I can say about it right now."

Area Swim Meet Set Saturday

With only four days to go, the local "Y" is looking forward to a successful swim meet between area high schools next Saturday afternoon, November 23rd. To date, intended entries have been heard from Port Hill, Allegany, LaSalle, and Keyser. All teams will be composed of only senior high school boys and girls competing as a school team for the annual trophy to be presented to the winner. Keyser High School will be the only new one to the affair this year.

It is requested that all senior high school boys and girls that have not bought their applications should do so as soon as possible for time is running short.

Open practice sessions will be held this week for all participants to get ready. Participants do not have to be a member of the "Y" to attend the practice sessions or the meet, both of which are under the direction of Eugene Kolbosky, "Y" swim coach.

At least 100 participants are expected to enter the event this year, and the Y.M.C.A. is expecting to have a "full-blown" affair before it is all over. Information can be obtained by calling either Lynn Patchin, or Eugene Kolbosky at the "Y."

KC Trades Wickersham, Rakow, Lumpe To Tigers For Colavito, Anderson

Athletics Reported Receiving $50,000 Cash From Tigers

By JACK BRANNAN
United Press International
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The Kansas City Athletics, a group of singles hitters and journeyman pitchers, began a program for power Monday by obtaining slugger Rocky Colavito in a five-man trade with the Detroit Tigers.

The Athletics gave up Jerry Lumpe, their mainstay at second base for the past five years, and front-line pitchers Dave Wickersham and Ed Rakow in the trade. The Tigers sent relief pitcher Bob Anderson and an undisclosed amount of cash, unofficially estimated at $50,000, to the Athletics along with Colavito.

"We are paying a heavy price to acquire the power hitting we need," said Athletics General Manager Pat Friday.

"But we must have power in our lineup, and we are going to get it."

Colavito, although admittedly a disappointment last season when he batted .271 and hit 22 home runs, has been one of the American League's top sluggers since he broke into the majors in 1956. The Indians traded him to the Tigers in April, 1960, for Harvey Kuenn.

Home Run Hitter
Colavito has hit 222 home runs during the past six seasons, more than any other player in the American League has hit during the same period.

In 1958, the 30-year-old outfielder led the league in slugging percentage and hit 41 homers. The next season, he hit 42 home runs and tied Harmon Killebrew of the old Washington Senators for the league's home run title.

His highest home run total was 45 in 1961, the same year Roger Maris hit 61 for the New York Yankees.

Colavito's greatest day at the plate was on June 10, 1959, when he hit four consecutive home runs in one game. That performance tied league records for consecutive homers in one game and most total bases in one game.

"This is the kind of power we want in our lineup," said Friday. "We feel that Colavito will be able to hit between 40 and 50 home runs for us next year."

Light Hitter
The Athletics gave up a good defensive player in Lumpe, whose best season in the majors was 1962 when he batted .301 and hit 10 home runs.

Lumpe's major league batting average of .278 is seven points below the .300 mark.

Rec Cage Leagues To Meet Tonight
The deadline for teams entering the High School or Men's Rec basketball leagues has been set for tonight when representatives of teams in both circuits meet at City Hall. Entry fees must be paid at this time.

The High School League will meet at 7 o'clock and the Men's League an hour later.

Team representatives will receive their team roster sheets and player contracts. By-laws will be discussed and acted upon.

Season play is expected to begin December 9 and practice sessions will be made available during the week of December 2.

higher than Colavito's. Lumpe, like Colavito, is 30 years old.

Wickersham, the workhorse of the Athletics' staff last season with 238 innings pitched, has a 25-20 record after three full seasons with Kansas City. He won 12 games and lost 15 last season while posting a 4.06 earned run average. The 28-year-old righthander had a 11-4 record in 1962.

Rakow, 27, also a righthander, has never had a winning season in three years with the Athletics. He posted a 9-10 record last season and has a 25-35 lifetime mark.

Anderson, 28, also a righthander, had his first winning season in seven years in 1963 when he posted a 3-1 mark with Detroit.

Villanova's Zwolak Cops Harrier Test

Notre Dame Takes IC4-A Team Title

NEW YORK (UPI)—Vic Zwolak of Villanova broke his own meet record in winning the IC4-A cross-country championship Monday but Villanova surrendered the team title to Notre Dame.

The 5-foot, 9-inch Zwolak covered the 5-mile course at Van Cortlandt Park in 24 minutes, 46.8 seconds to break the mark of 24:47.3 he established in last year's run. He finished about 100 yards ahead of Steve Machooka of Cornell, the 1961 winner.

Machooka, an exchange student from Kenya, Africa, who did not compete last year because he was scholastically ineligible, was timed in 25:08.

Bill Clark of Notre Dame, a junior, led the Irish to the team crown in the university division race by taking third in 25:09, about a yard behind Machooka.

Sophomore Richard Sharkey of Michigan State, runner-up in last week's Big Ten race, was fourth in 25:13 and Frank Carver of Notre Dame was fifth in 25:28.

Laguna Beats King In Bout At Paris
PARIS (UPI)—Ismael Laguna of Panama earned official recognition as world featherweight challenger Monday by outpointing Joe (Rafu) King of Nigeria in a 10-round fight before a sellout 5,000 at the Palais des Sports.

The bout was staged to determine which would be recognized by the World Boxing Association as challenger for the 126-pound crown won by Cuban Sugar Ramos of Mexico City.

Laguna's stronger finish, with long-range barrages of straight right and lefts to the head earned him the decision of referee Paul Desse Castellano.

The champion of Panama, only 20 years old, registered his 31st victory in 32 fights.

Arkansas Hunter Gets Deer With 35 Points
HOPE, Ark. (AP)—Eugene Harris of Saratoga, Ark., killed a 35-point deer Saturday near Hope on the last day of Arkansas' first deer hunting period.

The 275-pound buck, estimated to be 10 years old, was being chased by dogs when Harris shot him in the neck with a .12-gauge shotgun from a distance of 34 steps.

There were 35 sharp points on the deer's antlers and two more that had been broken off, said Gen Allen of Hope, a member of the hunting party.

KLEIN RECORD
PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Outfielder Chuck Klein established a modern National League record with the Phillies in 1930 by scoring 158 runs.

The A's also received an undisclosed amount of cash, unofficially estimated at $50,000. Colavito has hit 222 home runs in the past six seasons, more than any other player in the American League has hit during the same period.

Navy Gridders Set Up Modern Scoring Record

Score 293 Points, Tops 1954 Total

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—In case anyone had any doubts, Navy's 1963 powerhouse is the highest scoring football machine in modern Naval Academy history.

With their 38-25 victory over Duke Saturday, the Middies boosted their point total to 293 for nine games this season, an average of nearly 33 per game.

That's 10 points more than the previous record holder—Navy's 1954 team—scored in a nine-game season en route to the Sugar Bowl. This year's team still has whatever it can score against Army Nov. 30 to add to the record.

The Middies also broke another season record with their five touchdowns against Duke. They've now scored 32 on the ground, two more than the 1957 team which went to the Cotton Bowl.

These offensive marks were set in the face of a less enviable record which also fell to the 1963 team Saturday. Its 631 yards penalized eclipses a total of 609 yards against the 1957 team for 10 games.

1917 Team Scored 443
The academy recognizes as official only those records since 1933 when complete statistics started. Its 1917 team scored a total of 443 points in a different era of football.

Navy's lowest point total this year was a 21-12 decision over Virginia Military Institute in a game the Middies figured would be one of the easiest on their schedule.

They scored three touchdowns and a field goal against both Pitt and Michigan and four or more touchdowns against every other opponent they've played, including Southern Methodist which put the only blemish on the Navy record with a 32-28 decision. SMU and Duke are the only teams which have scored more than twice on Navy.

Roger Sets Records
Roger Staubach, the junior quarterback who leads this explosive offense, has set three individual season records for an academy player—most total offense, most passes completed and most yards passing. All three were previously held by George Welsh, who quarterbacked the Sugar Bowl team as a junior and set the marks the following year.

Pitt On Navy's Heels In Lambert Balloting
NEW YORK (UPI)—Syracuse and Penn State advanced Monday in the race for the 27th annual Lambert Trophy. Navy remained the unanimous choice for first place for the fourth straight week.

Pittsburgh stayed right on Navy's heels, gathering all second-place votes for the Lambert award, emblematic of Eastern major college football supremacy.

Syracuse (7-6) replaced Army in third and Penn State (7-1), moved to fourth ahead of the Cadets, who slipped to fifth after losing to Pittsburgh.

Behind Army, which has a 5-9 average vote, come Princeton (7-1) with 4.3, Boston College (6-2) with 4.0; Harvard (5-1-2) with 3.6, Massachusetts (8-0-1) with 2.5, and Dartmouth (6-2) with 0.9.

Chicago Loses Casares With Ankle Separation

Rick May Be Lost Remainder Of Year; Play Steelers Next

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The Chicago Bears, next Sunday's opponents of the Pittsburgh Steelers at Forbes Field, got some bad news Monday when it was learned their star fullback Rick Casares would be out for the rest of the season because of an ankle separation.

Casares suffered the injury in the Bears' 26-7 victory over the Green Bay Packers Sunday.

George Halas, owner-coach of the Bears, said Casares' ankle will be put in a cast for a minimum of six weeks. "I'm afraid that means he's out for the year."

The Steelers still looked to a tough game.

Steelers Coach Buddy Parker studied films of the Bears' Packers game and shuddered.

Kirkwood Cops Gardena Open Wins Over Sifford On First Extra Hole

GARDENA, Calif. (UPI)—Joe Kirkwood Jr., who combines golf with an acting and business career, Monday defeated Charles Sifford on the first extra hole of a sudden death playoff to capture the $7,500 Gardena Valley Open Golf Tournament.

Kirkwood and Sifford, the cigar-smoking Negro champion, finished the regulation 54 holes tied at 201, a dozen strokes under par.

On the playoff, Kirkwood shot the par-four first hole in the regulation number of strokes while Sifford hit a trap and took a bogey to finish second.

Shot a six-under par 65 after having gone into Monday's play three strokes behind Mike Austin who took the lead Sunday.

Kirkwood, who had been one stroke back of Austin at 134, shot a 67 to force the play into the extra hole for first money of $1,000. The bogey cost Sifford $200 as he earned $800 for second. Austin blew to a 76 Monday for 209.

In third place tied at 203 came Jim Ferrier and Bobby Brue. Amateur Ray Fulce was fourth at 205. Tied at 206 were Ray Botts and amateur Bill McCormick while Chuck Piecha was next at 207.

William & Mary Cross Country Runners Score

BLACKSBURG, Va. (UPI)—William and Mary nosed out defending champion West Virginia University Monday to take this year's Southern Conference cross country title.

Jim Johnson of William and Mary led the field of about 64 runners over a 4 1/4 mile course with a record 21 minutes, 48.8 seconds. Johnson broke his own previous record of 22:20.4.

W&M won the meet with 41 points. Other finishers behind W&M were WVU 48, VMI 69, Davidson 99, Furman 119, VPI 169, Richmond 173 and The Citadel 217.

West Virginia's Roger Meador, who placed fourth last year, finished 42nd this year, in 25:54.

The closest WVU got to the lead this year was fourth place, taken by Joe Kubie in 22:39. Don Sweeney came in 23:50.

Peralta, Thornton Rematched Jan. 24

NEW YORK (UPI)—Gregorio Peralta of Argentina and Wayne Thornton of Fresno, Calif., were matched Monday for a return light heavyweight contenders' television fight at Madison Square Garden, Jan. 24.

Peralta, 28, extended his unbeaten string to 42 bouts Friday night on an unpopular 10-round decision over Thornton, 24, at the Garden.

Peralta, weighing 178 1/2 pounds to Thornton's 179 1/2, was ranked 10th among contenders before Friday's victory and Thornton, fourth. Peralta scored his 42nd win in 45 bouts that included one defeat (in his first fight) and two draws.

Sixth with 22:59; Dick Muller eighth in 23:05; Howard Jackson 11th, 23:12, and Ralph Morrison 19th, 23:50.

Sports Editors Vote Baseball National Pastime

BOSTON (UPI)—Baseball still is the nation's dominant sport despite a rise in the popularity of football, according to the Academy of Sports Editors.

In a poll announced Monday, the members of the Academy voted 54 pct. for baseball as "Today's National Pastime." A total of 25 pct. voted for football, while another 11 pct. could not separate the two and voted for baseball and football together. Only 10 pct. voted for any other sport.

The academy, made up of 100 of the nation's leading sports editors, takes polls regularly on sports topics.

Colavito Says He Had Expected To Be Traded

TEMPE, Pa. (UPI)—Sluggish Rocky Colavito, traded by the Detroit Tigers to the Kansas City Athletics, said Monday he "definitely" expected the move.

Colavito, reached at his home here after being away on a deer hunting trip, said "They made enough noise in Detroit about trading someone and I assumed it was going to happen."

The husky slugger said he was so sure he was going to be traded that he told his wife to call him with any news before he and his two uncles went away hunting in New Hampshire.

Colavito said that when the trade was announced, he and his uncles were enroute home and he heard it over the car radio.

Colavito said he was "glad" to be with the Athletics and will "give them my best."

Asked about his comparatively poor slugging record last year, Colavito said he "always looked forward to a better season" and was hoping to help his new ball club.

61 FALCON 4 DOOR SEDAN

Here is a local one-owner car that shows the excellent care it has received. It has a light blue finish and a two-tone grey interior that is spotless. This is the 6 cylinder with standard transmission that gives high gas mileage. The other equipment includes heater, defroster, signal lights plus the small accessories. We have checked this car thoroughly and know it to be in A-1 condition. It also will carry the 1 year G&W Warranty. So be sure to see this beauty before you buy as we have it marked for a quick sale at our low price of only

Card Of Thanks

We wish to take this means to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind words extended to us following the death of our sister, Vennie Matthews. We also wish to thank those who sent flowers and cards to our home and to the funeral home. We are grateful to all who helped us in our time of need.

In Memoriam

In memory of William H. Fletcher, who passed away 5 years ago, November 19, 1958.
Some day, some time
My eyes shall see
The face I loved so well
Some day I'll clasp your loving hand
And never say farewell
For like to think when life is done
Wherever heaven may be
That you'll be standing at the door
Up there to welcome me
Sadly missed by his Sisters & Brothers

Mixed Feelings Expressed On Zoning Plan

Flintstone Area Meeting Is Held

Mixed feelings toward the adoption of a permanent zoning ordinance for Allegany County were expressed last night by residents of the Flintstone area who met in the high school auditorium with members of the County Planning and Zoning Commission to hear an explanation of the proposed ordinance drawn up by the commission.

One resident expressed an opinion that he was opposed to the commission and that residents of the Flintstone area had principles and common sense to determine the zoning of that section of the county.

Another resident of the area said he feels the commission is "doing a good job" and the proposed ordinance would be advantageous to the people as a whole although certain people will be hurt by its adoption. He said he felt the ordinance would be in the best interest of the people.

The commission is "backing big people" was the contention of another resident. Still another man said the matter should be voted upon and let the majority rule instead of three people. (The County Board of Commissioners.)

Gives Explanation
The question-answer period of the meeting featured questions which had been written on paper furnished prior to the meeting. However, toward the end of the meeting two or three people were expressing opinions from the floor.

The State Roads Commission was mentioned during the meeting by one individual who said Flintstone should be a tourist-recreation area but the SRC in its road building program is killing off those aspects.

The meeting, one of four being held this week in the county, was called to order by Dr. Rudolph Steinberger, a member of the commission, who presided at the public gathering in place of James A. Perrin, chairman.

He said the purpose of the meeting was to "provide information" to the residents by an explanation of the proposed permanent ordinance.

Dr. Steinberger then introduced Julian Tarrant, consultant of Ladislav Segoe Associates, who spoke for about three quarters of an hour on the ordinance.

Those at the meeting were furnished with a 14-page condensed version of the ordinance as compiled by Mr. Tarrant with illustrations drawn up by C. Lee Renaud, county planning director. Charts Displayed

A series of charts depicting the proposed land use was also explained by Mr. Tarrant, who said the permanent ordinance was drawn up with ample safeguard to protect everyone's interest and that provisions have been made for changes and amendments from time to time.

He referred to the three-man Board of Appeals as a "safety-valve" which would handle special cases and peculiar situations in the wide, broad and complicated county land situation.

The board, he added, would make adjustments and relieve hardship cases which may develop. He said that if the decision of the board is not satisfactory to the individual, he may take his case to Circuit Court for legal action.

Girl Scouts Invested

LaVale Girl Scout Troop 120 held its investiture and dedication ceremonies at LaVale Methodist Church.

New girls invested in a candle-light ceremony were Cynthia Dixon, Debbie Eckhart, Cecelia Hast, Patty Hite, Jackie Phillips, Judy Stutler and Janice Wilmont.

Rededicated at a choral reading ceremony were Mary Bailey, Susan Baldwin, Barbara Cloward, Adrienne Cody, Carol Foster, Clara Mae Kisselovich, Karen Konzal, Sandra Kruth, Barbara Lange, Cynthia Lange, Reba Lease, Ellen McKee, Nancy Saylor, Barbara Schelbe, Tracy Steeper, Rena Schoenadel, Nancy Taney, Pam Walters, Carol Sue Weakley, Leslie Wiley and Cindy Zimmer.

Patrol leaders, Adrienne Cody, Barbara Cloward, Debbie Eckhart and Cynthia Lange were presented patrol leader cords and badges earned during summer camp.

Misses Estella Struntz and Sherry Zembower, senior Girl Scout assistants, participated in the ceremonies.

Mrs. John Moberly was named cookie chairman and Mrs. Robert Steeper is skating chairman.

Refreshments were served by the committee of Mrs. Robert Steeper, chairman, Mrs. John Baldwin, Mrs. Joseph Kisselovich and Mrs. James Bailey.

Ornithological Unit Meeting Tomorrow

The Allegany Chapter of the Maryland Ornithological Society will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in the Board of Education building on Washington Street.

Dr. Theodore Bokout of the Board of Natural Resources in LaVale, will discuss "Endangered Wildlife."

Zoning Ordinance Explained

The proposed permanent zoning ordinance for Allegany County was explained last night to residents of the Flintstone area who met in the high school auditorium with members of the County Planning and Zoning Commission. Shown above, left to right, are Lawrence Kyle, Richard Aaron, C. Lee Renaud, county planning director, Alonzo Robosson and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Robosson. The ordinance was explained by Julian Tarrant, consultant, who also directed the audience's attention to a series of illustrations on the proposed land use in the county.

MAKES DEBUT—Carol Shroyer will make her debut with the Algonquin Players as Katrin Sveig in "Marriage Go Round," which will be presented at Allegany Community College Wednesday and Thursday at 8:15 p.m.

City Makes Final Payment On Dam Repairs

City Reservoirs Are Still Dropping

The Mayor and Council yesterday authorized the final payment on a $46,413.31 contract for the rehabilitation of the exterior of Lake Gordon and Lake Koon.

The last payment was drawn for $2,358.17 and made to the Air Placement Cement Company, Grafton, W. Va., which recently restored weathered surfaces on the city's two big water storage reservoirs.

The contract price was augmented by certain additional engineering and inspection costs.

The reservoirs, which store water supplies vital to most of the Greater Cumberland area, are still going down a bit, week by week, and only continued rains are expected to reverse the trend.

Water Use Normal
A report submitted by Ray Nixon, filter plant foreman, showed that water consumption averaged 11,780,000 gallons a day last week, virtually the same as a year ago.

Lake Gordon on Sunday stood at five feet, three inches below the spillway and Lake Koon down a full 18 feet.

Last Thursday, Lake Gordon was down five feet, 10 inches, and Lake Koon had dipped to 17 feet below.

The Mayor and Council yesterday adopted an ordinance setting up penalties for certain unauthorized uses of water during the current drought. The ban imposed while the water situation is still safe, will be lifted as soon as the reservoirs begin to fill up, Water Commissioner G. Ray Light reported yesterday.

Mr. Light served as acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Earl D. Chaney.

Plan Decorations
Routine business transacted at the council meeting included the application of Lt. Raymond R. Johnston to be placed on the pension list November 27. He is retiring after 42 years as a police officer here.

Parking meter collections for the week ending November 10 totaled $871.50, a $42.25 increase over the previous week.

Officials authorized the payment of $3,917.53 to Ed's Home Repair Service for a gas-fired boiler for City Hall.

Residents of the Maryland Avenue-Williams Street section received permission to decorate Williams Street in observance of the Thanksgiving football game at the Fort Hill stadium.

Work on the decorations will not begin until 7 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day, sponsors said.

Commission To Meet

Allegany County Commission on the Aging will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the County Commissioner's room at the Court House.

Catholic War Veterans To Observe Anniversary

Officers of Victor Tambollee Post 1712, Catholic War Veterans, will be installed during the 11th annual banquet and dance on Saturday at the LaVale fire hall. Cocktails will be served promptly at 6 p. m. followed by a steak dinner and dancing until midnight with music by John Ritchie's orchestra.

Reservations may be made by calling PA 4-4723 by Thursday. Officers for the coming year include: John A. Fishell, commander; George E. Laing, first vice commander; Marshall Morrissey, second vice commander; Leo J. Seibert, third vice commander; Patrick L. Himmler, adjutant; Albert Pisaneschi, treasurer; Eugene Bertone, welfare officer.

Dr. Leo H. Ley Jr., medical officer; Noah Carder, officer of the day and Rev. Ernest Horning, OFM, Cap., pastor of St. Peter and Paul parish, chaplain. Trustees are Nicholas Cantone, one year; Marco Cornacchi, two years; and Roger Pisaneschi, three years.

House Approves Navy Station At Sugar Grove

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Monday passed an appropriation bill which will allow the Navy's radio receiving station at Cheltenham, Md., to be moved to Sugar Grove, Pendleton County, W. Va.

An allocation of $3.4 million to move the facility came with the House approved military construction appropriation bill for 1964. The measure, proposed by a conference committee of the House and Senate, now goes back to the Senate for a final vote.

C&P Work Progressing

Work is progressing on the installation of new central office equipment in the new addition to the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company building here. Richard K. Dayton, local manager, said three supervisors and 24 employees of the Western Electric Company have been working two shifts each day on the new equipment.

Work on the new addition to the telephone company building was started in the summer of 1962 and was completed late this summer.

Once the equipment is installed and the work completed next spring, it will provide 2,370 new lines. Seven freight cars were needed to bring the 175,000 pounds of material here.

Tax Interest Rate Goes Up Tuesday

This is a good day to go to City Hall and make a payment if you still owe something on your 1963 city taxes.

Finance Commissioner Frederick J. Hill said the interest rate on 1963 taxes goes to 1½ per cent after today.

Many taxpayers, he said, have taken advantage of the partial payment plan which can mean a significant saving on interest costs.

Elkins Lawyer Announces For W.Va. Governor

Bonn Brown To File On January 6

By DONALD F. FANNIN
United Press International

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Elkins attorney Bonn Brown announced Monday as a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, then accused the present Democratic administration of losing its initiative over the past year.

Although he acknowledged that he, and any other Democratic candidates would have to run on the administration's record, Brown said he believes "it has been negative in its approach and laid back on its oars, allowing criticism to mount" during the year.

Despite this, Brown said that, overall, he believes the administration has "done more for West Virginia than any previous administration."

A longtime personal friend of Gov. W. W. Barron who has been active in the affairs of the administration, Brown said he believes he will win the Democratic nomination "regardless of who supports (Commerce Commissioner Hulett) Smith." Smith long has been regarded as a certain candidate for the Democratic nomination — with substantial party and Statehouse backing — but Brown Monday became the first major Democratic candidate to officially announce.

Cutright First
Management consultant Harold G. Cutright, Buckhannon, earlier announced he would seek the Democratic nod as a protest candidate "against the Statehouse gang."

Brown — at the afternoon news conference in the same room of the Daniel Boone Hotel where Barron announced some three years ago — said he had post-dated a $175 check and mailed it to the Secretary of State as a "symbol" of his filing intent on Jan. 6.

The graying, 52-year-old father of two girls said a canvass of the state over "several months" convinced him that "I can and will be nominated and elected governor of West Virginia."

He said he plans to set up campaign headquarters here and at Elkins "in about a month."

Asked why he decided to run — after declaring in an April, 1962, interview that he had no political aspirations — Brown said he believed "the people are entitled to a choice" regardless of the desires of any "so-called crown princes in the Democratic Party."

"I am going to give them that choice," the former State American Legion Commander and Marine fighter pilot said.

Brown Active
Brown, who acknowledged he has participated "in a lot" of activities of the present administration in an unofficial capacity, holds no public office.

He did serve publicly from 1949-51 as assistant Randolph County Prosecutor and from 1939-41 and 1949-51 as Elkins city attorney.

In a statement, Brown said he is not, "nor do I propose to be, a candidate for any faction or group in the Democratic Party. I plan to carry my candidacy to the people of West Virginia."

He said he believes the day of "machine politics" has passed. (Continued on Page 8)

DR. WAYNE M. HOLMES

Acting Dean Is Appointed At Frostburg

Ivan Diehl Retired Effective Nov. 12

Dr. Wayne M. Holmes, who has been serving as dean of academic affairs at Frostburg State College, retired from that position on November 12. Dean Diehl had been a member of the faculty at Frostburg since 1927.

Studied At Hamilton
Dr. Bremen said that the new dean will assume his duties immediately. Dr. Holmes received his undergraduate work at Hamilton College and earned the Ph.D. degree at the University of Connecticut.

His teaching and administrative experience include assignments as a teacher of English and Social Studies, director of adult education, associate professor of Education and assistant director of Teacher Training at Westfield State College, and guest lecturer at Worcester State College and the American International College in Springfield, Mass.

Active in civic organizations, Dr. Holmes served a four-year term as both member and chairman of the School Committee, chairman of two school committees, and Director of Civil Defense in Westfield, Mass. The 48-year-old dean holds membership in the National Education Association and Phi Delta Kappa.

Taught In France
Dr. Fleischauer has taught at Biarritz American University (France), Michigan State University, John Carroll University and Long Island University. He was graduated B.A. from Michigan State; M.A. from Columbia and Ph.D. from Western Reserve University. Dr. Fleischauer has edited Johnson's Lives of the Poets, Addison and Steele, and Johnson's Rasselas. A frequent contributor to the learned journals, he has published in Johnsonian Studies, College English, The Journal of British Studies, Modern Age, The University Bookman, Fordham Law Review, and the Burke Newsletter.

Having founded Lambda Iota Tau National College Literature Honor Society, Dr. Fleischauer served as executive secretary for two terms. In 1959 he founded the Johnson Society of the Great

Shoplifters Face Stiff Penalties

Fines, Jail Terms May Be Imposed

The Christmas shopping season will move into high gear very soon and persons who may be considering doing their "shopping" without paying for merchandise are warned that the penalties for shoplifting can be quite severe.

Recently there has been a wave of shoplifting cases and many individuals have been convicted and given heavy fines. Jail sentences have been imposed in some cases heard in Trial Magistrate Court.

There has been a trend to prosecute shoplifters since Maryland adopted a new law on this crime two years ago. Previously, many shoplifters were never prosecuted or given publicity because some felt publication of this information may suggest the activity to others.

Judge's Charge
Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris in his charge to the grand jury last month said more severe sentences should be meted out to convicted shoplifters if this practice is to be curbed in Allegany County.

Judge Harris also suggested the use of officers in plain-clothes to help apprehend shoplifting violators and many business establishments have added both uniformed and plain-clothesmen to patrol stores.

Since Judge Harris' remarks to the grand jury there have been stiffer penalties imposed, but this has not seemed to deter persons from shoplifting since both city and state police have been kept busy with complaints.

The law against shoplifting not only covers the act of picking up merchandise and walking out of the store without paying for it, but it also includes the act of altering the price tag on merchandise and aiding and abetting another person in the act of shoplifting.

When the Maryland law on shoplifting was revised recently it also lessened the danger of civil liability against store operators who suspected persons of shoplifting.

New Provision

The new provision states: "A merchant, agent or employee of the merchant who detains or causes the arrest of any person shall not be held civilly liable for detention, slander, malicious prosecution, false imprisonment of false arrest of the person so detained or arrested, whether such detention or arrest takes place by such merchant, his agent, or employee, provided that in detaining or in causing the arrest of such person, the merchant, agent or employee of the merchant had at the time of such detention or arrest probable cause to believe that the person committed the crime of shoplifting."

However, the law does not make it safe for a clerk or store manager to accuse someone of shoplifting simply because the person is acting strangely and looks suspicious. The law says there must be some "probable cause" such as someone observing merchandise going into the clothing of the suspect.

If the merchandise taken is a shoplifting case is less than $100 the act is considered a misdemeanor and may be tried in a magistrate's court. The penalty may be a fine of not more than $100 or not more than 18 months in jail. Also full restitution of the goods or full value may be ordered by the court.

Shoplifting that involves more than $100 is a felony and can be penalized by requiring restitution of the goods or full value, a fine of not more than $1,000 or not more than three years in the penitentiary.

One police officer said the majority of shoplifting crimes are committed by women and most of these occur in the larger self-service stores.

So anyone with thoughts of doing her Christmas shopping this illegal way should do well to consider the penalties involved and the warnings by Judge Harris.

Bishop Doll's Installation Appears On TV

Local residents will have the opportunity of witnessing the installation service for Rt. Rev. Harry Lee Doll, D.D., as tenth bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland, on cable television Friday at 11 a. m.

The telecast, which originates over Baltimore Channel 2, WMAR-TV, will be presented by the Potomac Valley Television Company over Cable Channel 6. It will run from 11 a. m. until noon.

Bishop Doll, a 60-year-old native of Martinsburg, W. Va., has been a bishop since 1955. He succeeds Rt. Rev. Noble C. Powell, who retired late in October.

Downtown Yule Display To Be Lighted Nov. 29

Extra Shopping Nights Scheduled

The Christmas shopping season will be officially opened here Friday, November 29, when street Yule decorations are lighted by the Downtown Cumberland Merchants Association.

The lighting ceremony has been scheduled for 7 p. m. at the corner of Baltimore and Centre streets.

An invitation to participate and to help Santa turn on the lights was accepted by the Mayor and Council yesterday.

The invitation was accepted after permission for the decorations was granted. Arthur Friedland, chairman of the association, said the decorations will include newly purchased cross-street streamers to augment decorations used last year.

He said the streamers will be placed so they will not interfere with the traffic control system. Downtown stores will remain open until 9 p. m. on November 29, the first of 11 extra shopping nights planned during the Yule shopping season.

Beginning Thursday, December 5, downtown stores will be open until 9 o'clock every night except on Friday until Christmas Eve, when the traditional 5 p. m. closing time will be observed.
